The first of the papers quoted above is a petition from C. A. Singara Mudaliyar, a pensioned clerk of the Examiner's Office, in which he prays that the Examiner may be ordered to provide him with an appointment in the Examiner's Office on the occurrence of the next vacancy.

2. The petitioner was employed as a clerk in the Examiner's Office from Dec. 83 to Dec. 93 when he was thrown out of employment, along with other clerks, in consequence of a reduction of establishment. For his service of 10 years he was granted a compensation pension of Rs 3-2-10 per mensem.

3. The petitioner complains

[P. W. 43 500—14-11-98.]

(1) that two highly qualified co-clerks who were thrown out of employ with him were subsequently re-entertained while the others have not been similarly provided for.

(2) that although several vacancies have occurred, they have been conferred on out-riders & not on the men thrown out.

(3) that recently 2 unpassed men have been taken on on Rs 20 per mensem as copyists in preference to himself.

4. The petitioner is an unpassed man & as such he can only be employed as a copyist or as an acting clerk. He has been employed temporarily on several occasions subsequent to his retirement in the Examiner's office, but he is pronounced to be a "very slow writer", & the Examiner considers that he is not at all a suitable man for permanent employment.

5. The petitioner's appeal is tantamount to a request that Govt. should set aside its declared policy of never interfering with the distribution of subordinate appointments, & order the Examiner to provide the petitioner with a permanent post in his office whether the former considers the latter an efficient man or not. It is submitted that this is a request which cannot be entertained, & that the petitioner be informed that Govt. declines to interfere on his behalf.

Enclosures. 3.

The humble memorial of C. A Singara Moodeliar lately a Clerk in the Office of the Examiner of P. W. Accounts, Madras.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your humble petitioner was entertained as a Clerk in the office of the Examiner of P. W. Accounts, Madras, in December 1883, and that he was thrown out of employ in 1893, owing to a reduction in the establishment of that office.

2. That in consequence of his permanent service of ten years, he was granted a Compassionate allowance of Rs. 3-2-10 per mensem.

3. That the above reduction of Establishment was notified in the Fort St. George Gazette dated the 29th August 1893, with the remark that the men thrown thrown out of employment are available for employment elsewhere, vide Extract herewith enclosed.

4. That two highly paid co-Clerks of his, viz Messrs G. E. Patton and S. Mahomed Yacoob Sahib were soon taken back, but the same course was not followed in the case of others, and though a number of vacancies occurred after the reduction, only strangers were appointed to them, much to the injustice of the thrown out hands.

5. That some two months before the reduction of establishment, Mr. I. S. Sherlock-Hubbard × purposely brought in, at the same time, about a dozen men into his office, and that instead of dispensing with the services of these new men, and of those of short services, on the reduction of the establishment, threw out men of long service. A reduction of this kind is against the Resolution contained in the Government of India P. W. Circular No. XII of 1884.

Key N.

6. That your humble petitioner was only given temporary and acting appointments now and then, despite his representation to the several successive Examiners, that he has very strong claims for a permanent vacancy of clerkship of Rs. 20/- per mensem.

+ Z.

7. That the petitioner's pay of Rs. 19/- having been increased to Rs. 20/- on the issue of G. O. No. 3084 dated 29th November 1893, he is not affected by the subsequent subsequent and more recent Public Service Notification, which rules that those who have not passed Matriculation with Handwriting Test &c are not eligible for appointments carrying a salary of Rs. 15/- and above.

8. That on the 16th April 1898, a permanent vacancy of Rs. 50/- per mensem occurred in the office, and your humble petitioner appealed to the late Examiner, Mr. E. A. Dennys, but though he was entitled to an appointment on Rs. 20/- per mensem (forfeiting his pensionary allowance of Rs. 3-2-10), he was only given an acting place on Rs. 10/- per mensem in July 1898 for 2 months.

9. That in the above arrangement, the last place which carried with it a salary of Rs. 20/- per mensem was conferred on one Mr. Boyton, an unpassed candidate. Again his pay has been recently raised to Rs. 30/-.

× a typist

10. That in the more recent vacancy caused by the transfer of Mr. Borrett to N. W. Provinces in January last, one Mr. Conquest another unpassed candidate was permanently appointed.

* as a copyist

11. That both these unpassed candidates were appointed as Copyists on Rs. 20/-.

12. That your humble petitioner further begs to submit, that it is very unjust to bring in outsiders overlooking the claims of a thrown out employee, and this is all the more so when these are unpassed men to boot.

13. That your petitioner begs to add that throughout his service of 10 years in the department he worked satisfactorily, as will be seen from the accompanying copies of testimonials which are submitted for your Esccellency's kind perusal.

14. That ever since his petirement your humble petitioner had been dragging on, a precarious excistence with scarcely any permanent employment to depend upon.

15. That your humble petitioner has been waiting for a long time to secure permanent place in the office of the Excaminer of P. W. Accounts, and that, as yet, he has not succeeded, although on more than half a dozen occasions, he had been temporarily provided for.

16. That your humble petitioner is at present without any employment, and having a family consisting of a wife and sisc children to support without any property worth the name to lay his hands on, he finds it extremely difficult, nay impossible, to live within his limited resources of Rs. 3-2-10. a month.

17. That in consideration of the circumstances above set forth, your Esccellency's memorialist most humbly begs that your Esccellency will enlist your sympathy in his case, and order his re-entertainment on the occurrence of the next vacancy in the Examiner's office, or grant him any other favor such as your Exccellency may deem fit and proper, considering the most pitiable circumstances of your humble petitioner.

18. For this act of kindness, the memorialist and his family shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.
