READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), Mis. No. 2278, dated 6th May 1899:—

Read—the following copy of arzi from the Tahsildar of Bellary, to the Collector of Bellary, dated 17th April 1899, Ref. on E. C. No. 1079:—

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has sanctioned certain leave concessions to the officers employed on famine and plague duty. The notification in which the above is published is dated 15th November 1897. In paragraph 4, it is stated that "concessions will ordinarily cease to be admissible after the expiry of two years from the date of this resolution." I beg to be informed whether the period of leave, if taken, should be completed within the two years allowed or whether it is sufficient if the leave is commenced within the two years allowed. I make this reference because I want to take four months' furlough which comes under this concession in the month of October 1899.

Endorsement of the Collector of Bellary, dated 24th April 1899, Ref. on C. No. 927.

Submitted for orders to the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement). The wording of the notification is not quite clear.
