It is submitted that the telegram from Bombay has been misread

The Govt. of Bombay, like the Govt. of India & the Chief Secretaries number their telegrams.

20 d is therefore the number of the telegram & does not refer to the number of Upper Subordinates required.

Telegram from Secretary to Govt P.W.D Bombay.

Upper Subordinates required for Famine relief works.

Circulated to H.E. the Governor

FOR ORDERS

If the emergency were in Bombay were very great, I think we should, even at considerable inconvenience, make every effort to send help. But, as I apprehend that the emergency is not very great, I think we should reply that as our own establishment is short, and as our own prospects are not completely secure, we regret we cannot spare any Upper subordinates.

H.S.H
24.9.99

The Secretary to Govt P.W.D Bombay telegraphs that 20 upper subordinates are urgently required for Famine relief works and asks if this Government can lend any.

It is submitted that the establishment as it now stands is below its sanctioned strength and that no upper Subordinates can be spared without serious inconvenience especially as we may have to open relief works ourselves.

Our new work also is 21/9/99 little use in Bombay. Except for those in our immediate frontier because they would be ignorant of the Language talked

No.

W. I cannot suggest any superfluous men. The fact that grants are curtailed does not enable us to reduce establishment anywhere - The permanent establishment is 3/4 below its sanctioned strength, and there are 9 sub pro temp men appointed till Dec next. If any are lent some of these might go without much loss to the Dept
