I have to report the occurrence of an accident ^{on 2nd Feb} ~~yesterday~~ resulting in the death of a Cooly Sakkaru Ramannah. While a party of men were engaged raising the falling shutters on the anicut two of the shutters already raised suddenly fell and the rush of water carried several men down to the lower part of the apron where they managed to regain their footing and were taken off by a fishing boat.

The man, a boat named, was missed when the others got into the boat and was there searched for but has not been found.
