much time is lost
owing to the way in which he is kept in the dark as regards
what action is taken
on his orders for
apparatus, & that he is still ignorant
what is being done, as the file sent to him
on Saturday contained no information
on the matter. No
object is gained by
thus keeping him

one available.
I should like to verify
the term "blanks".
I suppose it is all right

The specifications were as usual, sent to the D. G. in original, and no copy has been kept.
The Capt. of Works must have a copy. The term is I learn correct be well to inform him

 at each stage of the matter, as he can then
 arrange accordingly
 for his work, or
 make representations
 if the matter is being unduly delayed.
