EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) Represents payments actually made in the current year.

(b) A sum of Rs. 1,800, the pension of his mother, was added to his pension on her death.
(c) Provides for arrears undrawn last year.

(d) Though the pensioner is dead and no orders have been passed, provision is made as the pension is hereditary.

(e) A pensioner in Ganjam drawing Rs. 5,000 is dead and though the amount is subject to revision as stated in the appendix to G.O. No. 191, Revenue, dated 16th March 1899, yet the full amount has been budgeted for provisionally.

(f) The increase is due to arrears of the previous year drawn last year.

(g) The increase in the revised and in next year's budget is due to the renewal of old pensions chiefly in Madras.

EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(h) The budget estimate of the current year provided for payments to be made to the Travancore State in connection with the camps taken over by the British Government for the Periyár project. The payment which is annual is not made in any year when the net revenue falls short of the cost incurred in collecting it and in administering police and criminal jurisdiction and as no such payment was made in the past year, none is provided for either in the Revised Estimate or the Budget Estimate of next year.
