OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR,
ASTOR LIBRARY BUILDING, 40 LAFAYETTE PLACE.

New York October 12, 1898

W. B. de Winton, Esq.,
Secretary, Public Works Department,
Madras, India.

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to request your assistance in obtaining for the New York Public Library, one of the largest and most consulted reference libraries of this country, copies of the following which are needed to complete its file:

- (1) Administrative report of Public Works Dept... Madras Pres. '97-98.
- (2) Finance accounts of buildings, roads and irrigation branches of Public Works Dept., Madras, 1897-98.
- (3) Administrative accounts, Madras Presidency, irrigation, 1897-98.

As you will readily recognize the advantage of having complete files in a library so much consulted, the favor will be highly appreciated if you will kindly present to us copies of the above-mentioned works, and place the name of this Library upon your mailing list, for continuations.

Thanking you in advance for any courtesy that you may be able to extend to this Library, I remain,
Very respectfully,

John S. Billings
Director.

The above may be sent direct by mail, addressed: "New York Public Library, 40 Lafayette Place, New York, N.Y."—large packages by freight. All expense incurred in transportation will be promptly met by this Library, upon notification of the amount.
