SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER,

THE Chief Engineer,

Sir,

Enclosures.

In reference to item No. 1 of the Examiner's inspection report of the Bellary Division, G.O. No. 2880 W of 31st October 1899, I have the honour to state that I have long been aware that the Bellary Division Office was in bad order, so bad that nothing but a searching enquiry by an experienced accounts Officer would be of any use, vide this Office No. 767 W dated 22-2-99.

2. From time to time many of the subjects referred to in Mr. Lacy's notes have been dealt with by my predecessors and myself, in special letters to the Bellary Division, in disposing of the Q. I. statements, and circulars to all Divisions especially on the marginally noted subjects.

 - 2. Check of Bills - " 14
 - 3. Workshops - " 26

- and generally about the importance of measurement books.

As a matter of fact although I did not inspect the Office, as I considered it useless to do so, I have given as much time and trouble to the affairs of the Bellary Division Office as to the other divisional Offices of this circle which have been inspected twice by me during the last 18 months.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm Barclay Lieut Col R.E.

Suptg. Engineer, III Circle.
