EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS.

Madras, 11th December 1898.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1375 $\frac{A}{5}$

To

W.

I beg to report that Mr. Luke Taylor accountant 3rd: grade of this office died suddenly during the night of the 7th: Instant. He had attended office on the previous day.

2 - Mr. Taylor joined the Department in 1875 and has done excellent work in the Nilgiri & Periyar divisions and in this office. He was devoted to his work and I have never known a more industrious accountant or one more thoroughly reliable; he was universally respected & liked. In fact both his work & conduct were so exceptional that I venture to recommend that the son of the deceased- a lad of 19 - be admitted to the 8th: grade of accountants subject to his passing the necessary entrance examination within two years.

3. I make this recommendation as the poor fellow has left a wife and 7 children children almost unprovided for. He was to have retired on the 1st: April 1900.

FOR ORDERS.

death of Mr.L.Taylor, Accountant 3rd grade, and recommends that Mr.Taylor's son, aged 19, be admitted to the 8th grade of Accountants, subject to his passing the necessary entrance examination within two years.

2. The proposal involves the exemption of Mr.Taylor, junior, from the entrance accounts test for a -- period of two years and his direct appointment to the 8th, or lowest -- grade, of accountants without the usual preliminary service as an --- Accounts clerk.

3. The rules for appointment to the subordinate accounts branch are contained in Appendix C, Vol. I, P. W. Code, pages 369-73. The first rule on the subject states that as a general rule no one will be admitted to the branch until he passes the prescribed examination. A note at page 106 of the Government of India

Classified

Classified list, below the table of salaries, shows that unpassed men may be appointed on probation.

4. The Examiner's recommendation is submitted for very favourable consideration, in recognition of the devoted service of 24 years rendered to the state by the late Mr. L. Taylor.

3. The question is one which falls under the rules of the P.W. Code, and orders may be passed in this Department without reference to Educational.

In order as to whether the Examiner's recommendation may be enough for formal consideration -

It amounts to the exemption of young Taylor from the usual app't. to the 8th Grade without the usual preliminary service as an acct. clerk - there is also the question of the supervision of the senior acct. clerks who are now waiting for app't.

On the other hand, the case is a very special one, Mr L. Taylor having rendered such good service, & having died, it may be said, while at work.

The rules for app't. to the subordinate acct. branch will be found at page 369, Appendix
