SIR,

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to accord sanction to my office being connected with the Government Telephone exchange.

There is at present only one connection with the General Post Office which is on the Telegraph side of the building and consequently enquiries and messages intended for my office on the Postal side of the building can only be sent with the permission of the Telegraph authorities and are frequently delayed in trans-mission. The Director General of the Post Office has sanctioned the debit to Postal funds of the charges connected with the proposed connection.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Curtis
POSTMASTER GENERAL.
