To W.

The Military papers of the non-commissioned Officers named in your office note are not available in this Office and the question as to whether the men have fulfilled all the conditions required by the India Army circular, can be definitely reported upon, only after reference either to the Adjutant General or to the Controller Military Accounts Madras.

2. From page 47 of the Classified List corrected to 30th. June 1898 however the dates of enlistment in the case of the following men appear to be

Sergeant P. King	27th. November 1877
Sergeant J. O'C Phelan	12th. February 1887
Sergeant R. Cuthbert	2nd. May 1885.

The actual date of Sergeant England's enlistment is not known but from the fact that he joined the Department and drew pay as Apprentice Overseer from 1st. January 1898 as Sergeant, it is clear that he enlisted before the 1st. April 1898 and under para 3 of the India Army Circular clause 92 dated 1st. June 1898 communicated with G.O. No. 3080 W dated 1st. December 1898, all four of the subordinates would appear to have the option of coming under the new regulations from the 1st. day of the month in which they make their choice.

Copy of letter from the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras Command, to the Examiner P. W. Accounts, Madras No. 7675 dated 23rd January 1899.

In returning the enclosure of your letter No. 37 A/c dated 10th January 1899. I have the honor to state that the Non-Commissioned Officers noted in the margin are eligible to elect the new dressing rules promulgated in India Army Circular No. 92 of 1878 provided they are not in receipt of Consolidated pay and have not received their deferred pay.

2. As regards the case of Sergeant King it is observed that as he completed 21 years service in that rank as defined in Article 1031 Army Regulations, India, Volume I Part-I. on the 26th November 1898 he should have been paid his deferred pay under Article 1025(d) ibid and para 89 Chapter V, Public Works Department Code Volume I and does not therefore appear eligible to elect the new dressing rules.
