As Mr. deWinton was granted ordinary Privilege leave for one month from 3rd. February 1899 and famine leave for two months in continuation, no addition to the Estimate already submitted for the current year with my Office Note No. 195 B/E dated 17th. January 1899 can be made on his account.

2. In the case of Mr. Romilly, the draft G.O. received with your Office Note No. 914 C dated 10th. February 1899 simply admits him to the benefit of the concession. This order does not in itself convey Mr. Romilly's desire to be allowed to draw full pay for the first 2 months of the furlough availed of by him from 10th. January 1899. If so taken however, the extra cost for current year will be Rs. 627 of which Rs. 221 will have to be debited to the same head as his salary and the remainder Rs. 406 will be finally charged in the Home Accounts as in ~~the case~~ the case of Mr. Murray Executive Engineer.

3. There are two other cases which have to be considered

(I) The grant of 25 days' extension of Privilege leave as famine Leave to A. Narrainasawmy Naidu Temporary Upper Subordinate on Rs. 100 (item 37 of G.O. No. 319 W dated 2nd. February 1899) from 1st. February 1898 to 25th. February 1898 vide E.W's Memorandum No. 57 D dated - April 1898. The extra cost in this case is Rs. 89 but this relates to the year 1897-98.

(2) The grant of one month's famine leave to T.A. Kuppusawmy Iyer Overseer 2nd. grade (Item No. 46) notified in P.W.D. Notification No. 21 Part II. Fort Saint George Gazette dated 7th. February 1899. The extra cost in this case is Rs. 80.

4. Making a summary of the above it will be seen that the extra charge involved comes to

5. Enclosed is a statement showing the names of the men who have been admitted to the famine leave concession in the draft G.O. sent by you who have availed themselves of leave during or subsequent to the termination of the famine. In their case, the wishes of each Officer will have to be ascertained as to how they intend availing themselves of the concession, and until this is known, a sufficiently reliable estimate of the extra expense likely to be incurred cannot be prepared. At any rate, any adjustment that may be found necessary on ascertaining their views cannot be made in the accounts of the current year.
