In Ld. No. 30284, of 22 Nov 93, the defence, at the public expense in the first instance, of the suits brought against Mr. C. J. Hosken, Esq. Sub-Judge Dn & the Asst. Quarters by Collector, Kist for illegal collection of double water-tax, was authorised, & the Sub Judge, Ecuish, was instructed to report the result in view to final orders in regard to the incidence of the charges being passed.

The suits were dismissed by the Dt. Munsiff at Judoonda without costs as the double water tax was not rightly levied. vide pages B - B.

The plaintiffs filed appeals against the Dt. Munsiffs judgments & appeal suits were also instituted on behalf of Govt. in the Sub Judges Court, Cuttack.

all the appeals have been dismissed & in para 3 of both of the Sub Judge's judgments it is noted as regards 2nd Defendant (Mr. Hooker) no cause of action is disclosed as against him & I think Plffs. have no
cause of action against him".

In forwarding the Decree & judgments in the Appeal suits the S.E. requests that they may be returned to him for transmission to the Collector.

The suits relate to matters which should apparently be dealt with by the Rev Dept & it is submitted that Judicial orders regarding the incidence of the costs of the suits should be passed in that Dept & not in the P.W.D as originally contemplated.
