READ the following letter from R. N. Campbell Esq: I.C.S Ag: Collector of North Arcot, Dis No: 520 of 99, R. Ver dated 11th August 99:-

Adverting to Board's Proceedings :- No: 2930 Mis: dated 15th June 99 requesting me to report the circumstances under which remissions to the extent of Rs 11,792 were granted under the Cheyar Anicut System during Fasli 1307, I have the honor to enclose a copy of a report received from the General Duty Deputy Collector on the subject. It will be observed, therefrom, that large remissions were rendered necessary by the unfavourable character of the season.

2. In the statement appended to the Board Resolution No: 52, dated 11th February 1899 and in the Chief Engineer's note thereon, Rs 11,792 is shewn as the amount remitted under the.

the Cheyar Anicut. But the Deputy Collector reports that Rs 11,028 was the actual amount of remissions.

Resolution

Recorded.

2. With reference to para 13 of the Chief Engineer's review of the irrigation accounts for fasli 1307, communicated with Government order, No: 339-I, dated 13th April 1899, he will be informed that the remissions (11,792) granted under the Cheyar Anicut were rendered necessary by the unfavourable characters of the season.

3. With reference to para 2 of his letter read above, the Collector will be furnished with a statement showing how the amount of remissions (Rs 11,792) was arrived at. It will be seen from the statement that the figures reported by the Deputy Collector in respect of several villages differ from those shown in the irrigation accounts

The Tahsildar should be called upon to

to explain the differences.
