not till 3-10-99 that he produced the current paper; he having at this time ^{regained} forgotten in one of his "drawers". This Despatcher is a most unmethodical man - I am at present engaged on an inquiry into the loss of a set of Rules under the Bribes Act, which seems to have been
"mis-laid" in a similar manner by this man.

The Despatcher is the person who delayed C/O 4467.
The paper was sent to him in June last, because, at the time, he had in hand the file & draft of O 444-59 of 19 May 99. He was supposed to return the papers complete when the f.o. issued from the Pris. This event took place, as the Despatcher
himself explains,

C/O 4467 with
original f.o.
O 444-45 & other
papers were sent to the Record Supt through one of the clerks of this office who has, ^{by an oversight} put the papers in the drawer where files are kept
where papers are sent to Prisoners.
