SIR,

SIR,

In supersession of this office letter No. 54-T., dated the 25th February 1898, I am directed to request that the Director General of Telegraphs may be advised early in July of each year of what lines of telegraph along canals are likely to be required during the following year, so that the requirements under stores can be included in the "Forecast of Stores required from England" which is prepared in that month.

At present the information is only received in time to be incorporated in the Budget.

2. Any urgent works decided on between July and September may, if considered advisable, be applied for in the latter month.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

A. C. Lees
