From

The AGENT,
SOUTH INDIAN RAILWAY,

To

The CONSULTING ENGINEER FOR RAILWAYS,
MADRAS.

Sir,

Your letter No 682 of the 5th instant, arrangements shall be made to render after the 31st of December next the monthly and other periodical accounts and returns of the South Indian Railway to Government in the State Railway forms and according to State Railway Classification and procedure.

As our Accounts Department will be busy in adjusting and closing the old books for some time after the transfer has been made of the proprietorship to the State of the South Indian Railway, I consider it desirable to defer the consideration of an alteration in the detailed forms now in use in the several departments, and I will therefore ask the Managing Director to supply our requirements of such forms for the
