Order—dated 28th May 1890, No. 380, Educational.

Recorded.

2. The following paragraph will be communicated to the Public Works Department, Railway Branch:—

“It follows from these conclusions, however, that the Government of Madras should give a sympathetic ear to any requests proceeding from these colonies. At present it is believed that nothing is before Government, but the suggestion, which has been made that the name of the Kadgod station may be altered to Whitefield, might possibly be considered by the Railway Company if brought to its notice. The Dewan of Mysore has informed the Governor that no objection to the change exists on the part of the Government of Mysore.”

In reply to your endorsement to G.O., No. 812 R., dated 10th June 1890, on the subject of the proposed alteration of the name of Kadgod station on the Bangalore branch to Whitefield, I have the honor to inform you that, in April 1889, the subject was raised on the ground that the name Kadgod was so near that of Kátpádi that goods were liable to be missent from one to the other, and to this proposal reply was made to the effect that the name of a Railway station could only be changed with the sanction of the Government of India, and that as all such changes cause inconvenience to the public and Railway staff, besides entailing the cost of altering the books, notices, &c., on this and other Railways, the grounds brought forward were not considered sufficient to warrant a recommendation by the Company of the proposed change.

2. There will be no objection on the part of the Company to the alteration as now proposed if it is the wish of Government that it should be carried out.

Submitted for the orders of Government with reference to G.O., No. 812 R., dated 10th June 1890.

2. The Agent and Manager, Madras Railway, states that, if Government desire it, he is willing to change the name of the station at Kadgod to Whitefield.

Order—dated 1st July 1890, No. 936 R., Public Works.

Ordered to be forwarded for the sanction of the Government of India.
