From the Agent and Manager, Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 17th July 1890, No. E 111/771, with enclosure.

Submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. The Agent and Manager, Madras Railway, submits for sanction an estimate, amounting to Rs. 10,952, chargeable to Capital, of the cost of the proposed station-house, &c., at Singánallúr on the South-West Line.

3. The necessity for the work was considered at the Official Meeting and Stores Committee held at Ráyapuram on the 29th May 1890, and approval was given to plan and estimate being submitted for the sanction of Government.

The Traffic Manager writes as follows in regard to the necessity for the work:—

"The receipts at Singánallúr for last year amounted to upwards of Rs. 17,000, and I am of opinion the receipts will increase to Rs. 20,000 or more if facilities for dealing with goods traffic are provided.

"At the present time trains are very constantly delayed while wagons are loaded and unloaded.

"The station is a very promising one."

4. The sanction will lapse at the end of the fourth quarter after its receipt.

Provision has been made in schedule B, budget estimate, 1890-91, items 6, 7, 18 and 32.

The estimate is recommended for sanction.
