Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your No. 1315 R. dated 4th Septembe 1890, forwarding certain correspondence f which it appears that the investigation into the cost of establishment in the audit, acco cash and Pay offices of the Madras Railw has been deferred pending the completion o the Capital and Revenue accounts for the past half year.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India regrets that any del should have been permitted to occur in in -tuting the investigation, and I am to expre a hope that the enquiry may have alread been put in hand and that it will be prosecuted
