READ—the following paper:—

From J. C. HANNYNGTON, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trivandrum, 31st October 1890, No. 170.

I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Diwan of Travancore, No. 4988—P-404, of 30th instant, on the subject of a proposed visit of the 2nd Prince, Martanda Vurma, to Madras for the purpose of attending the B.A. Degree examination, and request that Government will be good enough to issue such instructions as may be deemed necessary.

2. The Prince purposes leaving Trivandrum on the 27th November next, and I enclose a copy of the programme of his journey.

ENCLOSURES.

From T. RAMA ROW, Esq., Diwan of Travancore, to the British Resident of Travancore, &c., dated Trivandrum, 30th October 1890, No. 4988—P-404.

His Highness Martanda Vurma, the 2nd Prince, having to proceed to Madras to pass his examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, purposes leaving Trivandrum on the 27th proximo.

2. I enclose a copy of the programme of the Prince's journey and shall be obliged by your kindly informing the Government of Madras of the proposed visit and arranging with the Collectors of the stations at which His Highness will halt on his way, to render any assistance that might be required in making preparations at the halting stages. It will also be well if the South Indian Railway Company were asked to facilitate his travelling on their line.

3. Subsequently his wife being dangerously ill he applied for permission to convert the privilege leave into one year's furlough which was sanctioned by the Government of India in its telegram above quoted embodied in G.O. No. 1475 R, dated 9th October 1890.

4. The Agent, South Indian Railway, now asks sanction to the furlough having effect from the 9th September 1890 or 10 days subsequent to the date on which Mr Bull availed himself of privilege leave, and as a special case, that the 10 days

10 days in question may be considered as subsidiary leave under article 354 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

5. With reference to this the Examiner of Railway Accounts writes

"The article of the Civil Service Regulations
"quoted does not refer
"to a case like Mr Bull's
"He is not entitled to
"any subsidiary leave
"as part of his furlough
"has been spent in India."
