Circular 19 R. of 1883. Proposed to open Villupuram-Tiruvannámalai section about 40 miles of Villupuram-Guntakal State Railway on or about 15th November 1890.

ENCLOSURE.

Telegram from the Consulting Engineer for Railways, to the Director-General of Railways, Simla, dated 4th November 1890.

Inspected line Villupuram to Tiruvannámalai. Banks and cuttings everywhere complete and to full section. Ballast everywhere sufficient and permanent-way in good order. Waterways appear sufficient. Masonry is of excellent quality and girders were tested with satisfactory results except in case of one span of forty feet of obsolete type which will be replaced at once. There is no fencing. Level-crossings have been made up and gradient and mile posts have been provided. Sidings are everywhere complete and sufficient accommodation for first opening is ready at all stations. Telegraph is in working order. Permanent watering arrangements are not ready but efficient temporary arrangements have been provided. Distant signals are everywhere in working order and main signals have been erected at termini, but not at intermediate stations where they will be provided within 10 days. Turn-table at Tiruvannámalai was not ready but should be completed within 4 days. I recommend that sanction should be given for opening for day running provided new 40-feet girder is erected main signals are everywhere provided and turn-table is ready and all passed by an officer of this department on fifteenth. Governor proposes to open line on 17th.

Telegram from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, to the Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Railway Branch, dated Simla, 7th November 1890, No. C 138.

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council sanctions the opening to passenger traffic of the Villupuram-Tiruvannámalai section of the Villupuram-Guntakal Railway subject to the conditions recommended in the Government Inspector's telegram of 4th November.

Order—dated 8th November 1890, No. 1741 R., Public Works.
