My dear Price

Your letter of the 19th Nov. I put up for ready reference together with the memorial of the petitioners & all apply.

I have marked on the enclosed map the line proposed by the memorialists in red chalk. It will be seen that it crosses the river 16 miles at least above Majmundry and leaves the Canals altogether and is about 20

Government House,
Madras. 21st Nov. 90

My dear Colonel

I am desired to return the map you kindly sent, and to say that His Excellency agrees with you in thinking that the proposed alignment is out of the question. He would be glad if you would, none the less, kindly circulate the paper.

Yours Sincerely
J. Rees
