under article 377 of the Civil Service Regulations his furlough should have ceased on the eve of the 1st August. Mr Rees must therefore under the rules be considered to have been absent without leave since that date to the date he reported his return from leave viz the 25th February 1890.

Note from the Examiner of Railway Accounts dated 31st March 1890, re- the furlough leave of Mr Rees of the Nellore Branch of the Villupuram Guntakal State Railway.

Mr Rees was a non gazetted officer at the time his application for furlough, was submitted and it was unnecessary therefore for the Examiner to certify. In this particular case, however, the Superintendent, way and works, asked the Examiner to certify and forwarded an extract, merely, from Mr Rees' service Book. There were accordingly no data as to Mr Rees' age.

The Last Pay certificate was prepared by Superintendent, way and works, and forwarded to Examiner for countersignature but it remained un-completed in either the Trichinopoly Branch office or the office of Chief Auditor, South Indian Railway, to which line the records of the Nellore Branch had in the meantime been transferred because Mr Rees had gone away without leaving any address. Nothing more was heard of him till he lately reported his return to duty — when his furlough pay to 1st August only was paid and there has, accordingly, been no overpayment of allowances.

Sir

Re: Proceedings of the Madras Government P. W. D. No. 383-4 R, dated 18th March, 1890.

With reference to the above I have the honor to state that I sent my application for 12 months furlough through the proper Channel. Furlough was granted by the Director General of Railway's Notification No. 40 of 29th December 1888.

The Government of India P. W. D telegram dated 12th March 1890, States, "G 128. Under article 377 Civil Service Regulations Rees leave ceased from August last. Pension papers Should be prepared accordingly and excess furlough allowance if drawn, retrenched from first Pension

Pension payment." I was quite ignorant of the existence of the above rule and I consider that the Examiner of Accounts or the Director General of Railways' Office should have brought the rule to my notice at the time furlough was applied for. I accepted the Director General of Railways notification, beforementioned, in good faith, and now on my returning to duty after the lapse of nearly 12 months, I am notified that I was only entitled to furlough to the 1st August 1889. Had I been informed of this when I sent in my application, I would not have accepted any leave - but now that I have taken it owing to some oversight over which I could not possibly have any control and in doing so have gone to great expense which I should not otherwise have incurred I humbly consider that the Madras Government could justly take a more favorable view of my case, and grant me furlough pay to the date of my rejoining, (the 25th February 1890) from which date until the date of final orders from the Government of India for my retirement on pension, I believe I am

I am entitled to full pay

Hoping that this petition will be favorably considered

~~SUBMITTED.~~

Submitted to Government for transmission to the Government of India with reference to its letter No. 1267 G., dated 17th May, embodied in G.O. No. 779 R., dated 4th June 1890.

2. The Examiner of Railway Accounts submits for disposal the pension papers of Mr B. Rees, Honorary Assistant Engineer, shewing the length of his his pensionable service to be 16 years 5 months 25 days, and the amount of pension due to him, Rs 77-3-10 per mensem.

3. With reference to the concluding portion of para 1 of the letter above quoted, no retrenchment on account of Excess furlough allowance drawn by Mr. Rees is necessary, as that officer has not drawn any allowances subsequent to 2nd August 1889.

4. Under the special circumstances of the case, which have already been reported, and

and the consequent hardship devolving on Mr Rees by his being pensioned so much earlier than he anticipated, it is strongly recommended that he be allowed to draw the difference between his furlough pay and pension in addition to the latter during the period he believed he was still on furlough.

5. His furlough pay being Rs 194-14-4 and his pension allowance being Rs 77-3-10, this would amount to Rs 117-10-6 per month for a period of six months 22 days which would be Rs 798-6-2.
