Sir,

I beg to submit the following copy of a letter from Executive Engineer Mr. W. J. Oodie at present employed on the Vellupuram Gingee State Railway to the Company's Chief Engineer:—

"I have the honor to request that you "will kindly represent to the Government of "India in the Public Works Department "that Mr. W. E. Waddon, Executive Engineer, "was lately promoted to the rank of Executive "Engineer, 3rd Grade, although his Standing in "the Service is junior to my own, and that I shall "be greatly obliged if I may be informed whether "my being thus passed over has been due to any "shortcoming on my part."

I am,
Sir,

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 1717 R. dated the 6th November 1890, submitting for orders a representation from Mr. H. J. Oddie Executive Engineer against his supersession in promotion by Mr. Haddon, I am directed to state that Mr. Oddie should be informed that on a full consideration of the merits of both officers the Government decided to give promotion to Mr. Haddon, and that he should be reminded that promotion is not decided on considerations of seniority alone.
