DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 1010	Press Mis.
Dated 21. 10	1882

Not to be folded or roughly handled

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 29th August 1882, Mis: N. 6899, on letter from the Collector of Cuddapah, dated 14th August 1882, N. 390.

Sagaram Rama Rao, a thrown-out employee of the P. W. Department, was appointed a gum-astah in the office of the Deputy Tahsildar of Piler, in August 1881. He received a gratuity of Rs 90 in the above Department, which he did not express his intention to refund, until he was asked in March 1882 by the Deputy Tahsildar if he had a Service book. He says that he omitted to offer to refund the gratuity through ignorance of rules, being under the impression that he had forfeited all his past service on account of a break from the time time of his reduction in the one Deptt:

to that of re-employment in the other.

2. The Accountant General, who was addressed on the subject, considers that the request of Rama Row, to allow him to refund the gratuity and count his previous service, cannot be entertained, unless a special order of Govt. is obtained, inasmuch as he failed to intimate his willingness to refund the gratuity immediately on his re-employment, as required by Section 146 of the Civil Pension Code.

3. I have therefore to request that the Board will be pleased to move Government to sanction the recovery of gratuity received by Rama Row, and to return his Service Book which appears to have been recorded in the Govt. office.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government, through the Accountant General.

Read

Read also the following letter from the Accountant General, dated 14th September 1882, No. 234 re-porting on the above.

In transmitting herewith a letter from the Collector of Cuddapah, No. 320, da-ted the 14th August 1882, received with the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No.
6599, dated the 29th idem, I have the honor to state that Sangaram Rama Row was originally employed as an Overseer's writer, Madanapalli Div-ision, and his services were dispensed with in consequence of reduction of es-tablishment in the P.W. Department and he received a compensation gra-tuity of Rs 90-... sanctioned to him in G.O. No 39, dated the 24th January 1881, Pension Department. On re-employ-ment as gunastah in the office of the Deputy Tahsildar of Piler in August 1881, he did not refund his gratuity, nor did he express his in-tention to do so, until he was asked asked in March last. Rule 1, Section 176 of the Civil Pension Code and the note under that rule contemplate that the option to refund the gratuity should be exercised by the officer immediately on his re-employment in qualifying service under Govt. In the case of Vedachellam Mudaliar (a case somewhat similar to the one under reference) Government have allowed him to refund the gratuity after a lapse of nearly one year after re-employment (Vide G.O. No 308, dated 30th March 1882, Pension Department). Under these circumstances, it rests with Govt. to decide whether the concession granted to Vedachellam Mudaliar should be extended or not to Rama Rao.

2. In conclusion, I beg that any orders that may be passed on this report may be communicated to Government in the Pension Department -

Order

Order thereon, 2d Decr: 1882, No. 3193.

The refund by Sangaram Rama Rao of the gratuity of Rs 90, sanctioned to him by G.O. No. 307, dated the 24th January 1881, is sanctioned on the understanding that it is made in accordance with Section 176, Rule 1 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition).
