GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of Bellary, dated 4th October 1882.

Certificate and report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 31st October 1882, No. A.D.J.-296.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty-eight years, one month, and twenty-one days, and that a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 7-8-0 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 106 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition. The calculations have been duly verified. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his letter to this office No. 3411, dated the 4th October 1882.

2. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

3. Although the word "invalid" has been inserted opposite to No. 9 on the first page of the application, it is apparent from the Collector's letter quoted above, and from his remarks opposite to No. 5 on the third page, that the application was intended to be regarded as one for superannuation pension. This office has accordingly recommended that the applicant should be admitted to the latter class of pension.

4. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant overstayed his authorized leave of absence on three different occasions. But, with reference to Exception (b), under Section 96 of the Civil Pension Code, this office is of opinion that these overstayals need not be regarded as interruptions requiring condonation by Government.

5. It is also to be observed that the applicant enjoyed furlough leave on half pay from 3rd May 1880 to 31st March 1882. The grant of the leave was obviously irregular, as he had already enjoyed leave on private affairs on three different occasions (vide Section 131 of the Civil Leave Code). The leave however having been granted, it may now, at the discretion of Government, be converted into leave on medical certificate, but up to 22nd August 1881 only, as on that date the applicant completed his fifty-fifth year of age and was thereafter barred by Section 45 of that Code from the enjoyment of any leave other than privilege leave or special leave. It will further rest with Government to decide whether the irregular payment of leave allowances beyond the 22nd August 1881 should be recovered from the arrears of pension admissible to the applicant or not.

ORDER—dated 14th November 1882, No. 1091, Pension.

Under Sections 106 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Pennakonda Hanumantha Row, late Vernacular Clerk, Collector's Office, Bellary, a superannuation pension of Rs. (7-8-0) seven and Annas eight per mensem, payable at Bellary, from 1st April 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-eight years, one month, and twenty-one days.

2. The furlough granted to the applicant in May 1880 is converted into leave on medical certificate with effect up to the 22nd August 1881, on which date he attained the age of fifty-five years. The leave allowances subsequently drawn in contravention of Section 45, Civil Leave Code, need not be recovered.
