GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Tinnevelly, dated 26th October 1882.

Certificate and report of the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 26th October 1882, No. A.D.J.-294.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for eleven years, ten months, and six days, but that no gratuity is admissible under the strict letter of the rules of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition, for the following reasons.

2. It will be seen from the accompanying copy of the Head Assistant Collector's No. 649, dated the 22nd November 1880, that the applicant, while in effective service, behaved towards the Tahsildar of the Ambásamudram Taluk, his immediate superior, in such a manner that he was regarded as a madman and not responsible for his actions. On his being sent up for medical examination in view to determining whether or not he was mad, the Zillah Surgeon, in his letter to the Head Assistant Collector, No. 253, dated the 13th May 1881, copy accompanying, reported that he could not certify that the applicant was a lunatic of such a description that he could be sent to an Asylum, but that he considered him to be unfit for the post of a peon. Beyond this there is no sufficient evidence that he was permanently incapacitated for further service, such as that required by the rules of the Civil Pension Code.

3. Moreover the applicant is reported to have died after he was suspended from the public service, and the suspension was not followed by reinstatement as required by the rules. His age on the date of death was only thirty-one years. It is now of course quite impossible to procure a medical evidence in support of applicant's permanent incapacity for further service at the time of his death. Under the circumstances it is for Government to decide whether any application for gratuity can be entertained. The records of the applicant's service show him to have been a most inefficient servant, to have been constantly disobedient to orders, and on one occasion, when on duty, keeping order at a festival, to have combined with some other persons to extort money from a party of gamblers and to divide it among themselves. On no ground therefore of good service rendered has the applicant any claim to a gratuity.

4. Should Government be pleased to decide that the application should be entertained, the applicant may be granted a gratuity not exceeding Rs. 20, equal to four months' pay.

5. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter forwarded with this office report, No. A.D.J.-227, dated the 9th September 1882.

ORDER—dated 15th November 1882, No. 1102, Pension.

It appears that the applicant never applied for pension, and it is clear, in any case, that he died while under suspension for misconduct. In these circumstances no retiring allowance can be passed.

Takid to the Tahsildar of Ambasamudram Taluq.

Besides perusing your arzis Nos 199 and 211 regarding the obstinate and insubordinate conduct of your taluq peon (No 9) Minakshisundaram Pillai, I have heard the peon who was also present. It is beyond doubt that the peon is careless of his post and still more impertinent. He is a peon who has an inam on account of a water pandal and lives from the proceeds of that endowment. I have addressed the Collector recommending the resumption of the Inam on the above said grounds. I have, therefore, dismissed the said peon Minakshisundaram, from his post. you will recommend a competent man for his place. Enclosures & the arzis are returned. The peon's belt is herewith sent.

Takid to the Tahsildar of Ambasamudram Taluq.

Under the Proceedings of the Collector No 183 dated the 25th January last, passed in reference to the appeal preferred by Minakshisundaram, dismissed peon of the Taluq, the following order is passed:—

As it is stated that his removal from the service, up to the present, is itself sufficient for his wrongs, and that he should be transferred to any other taluq so soon as an opportunity offers itself. he will be reinstated and the one appointed in his stead removed at once. The records, as per list, (30) connected with the appeal, are returned.

Proceedings of the Head Assistant Collector of Tinnevelly dated 22nd November 1880.

Read Ambasamudram Tahsildar's Arzi No 644 of 1880, reporting on the character and conduct as well as the past history of Minkshisundram, Peon, Ambasamudram Taluq.

Read also the former correspondence referred to in the above Arzi.

The Peon appeared and heard.

Order.

The man's past history shows he is a most useless public servant.

Since he has been doing his duty here his conduct has been so strange that I could only account for it on the supposition that he was mad. The Civil Surgeon says he is not. I am sure the Civil Surgeon is mistaken. His conduct here assaulting the Punkahwallas in the middle of the night, trying to climb into my wife's bedroom at the same strange hours, and throwing stones at my child, are clearly the acts of a man not responsible for his actions.

If I did not think him mad, I should dismiss him summarily. The Civil surgeon says he is not so. I am put in rather a difficult position. He will remove his peons belt and will be removed from the Government service and as I am not willing to punish a man for acts for which in the state of the mind he is in, he is not responsible, he will during good behaviour, be appointed as watchman at the Kolundumamalai and the Kolundumamalai peon Pandaram will be appointed as Talug peon in his stead.

In reply to your letter No 88 of 4th May 1881 with reference to Peon Meenachi-Sundaram I have the honor to report that I have on several occassions seen the man and for a few days had him under observation in the dispensary and that although I cannot certify that he is a lunatic of such a description as requires to be sent to an asylum, I have no doubt from his appearance, general conduct and talk as observed by me, as well as from what has been reported about him that he is a person of weak intellect and erratic conduct which at time displays itself in an intenser degree by eccentricities and renders him

2 From 3rd December 1880 to 10th February 1881 the applicant was a jungle watchman and paid from jungle Conservancy fund, and the reasons for his degradation are fully stated in the copy of Head Assistant Collector's Proceedings dated 22nd November 1880 No 649 already furnished.

3 During the time the applicant was a jungle watchman he was suspended for neglect and absence from duty and sent for examination to the Zillah Surgeon, who in his letter of the 13 May 1881, copy of which was already sent to you, stated that he (applicant) was "unfit for the post of peon". On the strength of this letter he was removed from Service and recommended for gratuity. (Vide Collector's Pro. dated 30 May 1881 - Copy already sent)

4 The applicant did not apply for gratuity of his own accord. He died on the 7 August 1881.

5 Translations of the orders promised in the application for his gratuity are herewith submitted.

Takid to Saravanaimuttu Pillai, Tahsildar of Satur Talug.

Received your arzi No 117 and its enclosures.

It is learnt from the depositions of the Talug peons themselves, viz Revenue peon Minakshisundaram and batta peons Venkatachalam and Samsudin who were deputed for bundobust on the occassion of Kannisevi festival, that they obtained Rs 3 from certain gamblers and shared the amount among themselves. It was quite improper that the man who was posted for bundobust should perpetrate this dishonest action. I have, therefore suspended the three for 3 months from this date, and appointed in place of Minakshisundaram, one Virappa Naik a mokufee Vattiyan of the salt pan. If the payer brings a charge of extortion, the case should be criminally proceeded with. Enclosures returned.

Perused your arzi No 104 bringing to notice the conduct of Minakshi, a peon of the Taluq.

You state that the peon who was placed at the disposal of the 1st Class Revenue Inspector for his irregularity in attendance, neglect of duty and gambling did not behave himself properly even there and that you have therefore recalled him, that on his being directed to procure the attendance of pensioners he took no pains to carry out the order, besides being unable to account for it and that in fine, his character was anything but satisfactory. It is further made out that on a complaint against him forcibly of taking bribes last year from certain gamblers he was suspended for 3 months. As you say that his conduct is still unsatisfactory I suspend him for a month from this date. You will strictly warn him that he will be dismissed if he is any more reported against. You may appoint a substitute yourself. Enclosures returned.

You state that peon Minakshi who was ordered to procure the attendance of one Ganapati asari of Virajapuram for some enquiry, did not carry out the order, that on being asked about it offered no proper answer but gave an unreasonable deposition using certain threatening terms against you, that he has been once suspended for 6 months and transferred from Satur Taluq, and again suspended for 3 1/2 months in 1874, that he is very unmindful of public duty and has been always remarked about by the permanent Dy Tahsildar, and that he is one who does not act according to the orders given.

Verified from the records of the Collector's Office Tinnevelly and the verification confirmed by reference to the annual returns on record in this office.

The applicant was reported to have been removed from the service on the 21st June 1878 on account of carelessness and of impertinent behaviour But on appeal he was re-instated in his post. The period of non employment in consequence of the above dismissal viz: from 22nd June 78 to 11th February 1879 has, under the spirit of rule 2 Section 97 of the Civil Pension Code, been regarded as suspension followed by re-appointment.

The Collector has apparently rejected as non-qualifying the period of service rendered in the appointment of Jungle watcher, which, it is presumed was paid from the Jungle Conservancy Fund. But this Office has regarded it as pensionable under the Orders of Government No. 666 dated 21st April 1881 Revenue Department.

It does not affect the retiring allowance due

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No $\frac{ADj}{294}$ Certified that qualifying service in Inferior Grades has been duly proved for 11 years 10 months and 6 days; but that no Gratuity is admissible under the strict letter of the rules of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition for the following reasons.

It will be seen from the accompanying Copy of the Head Assistant Collector's No. 649 dated the 22nd November 1880, that the applicant while in effective service, behaved towards the Tahsildar of the Ambasamudram Taluk, his immediate Superior, in such a manner, that he was regarded as a madman and not responsible for his actions. On his being sent up for Medical examination in view to determining whether or not he was mad, the Zillah Surgeon in his letter to the Head Assistant Collector No 253 dated the 13th May/81, Copy accompanying, reported that he could not Certify that the applicant was a lunatic of such a description that he could be sent to an Asylum, but that he considered him to be unfit for the post of a peon. Beyond this there is no sufficient evidence that he was permanently incapacitated for further service such as that required by the rules of the Civil Pension Code.

Moreover, the applicant is reported to have died after he was suspended from the public service and the suspension was not followed by re-instatement as required by the rules. His age on the date of death was only 31 years. It is now of course quite impossible to procure a Medical evidence in support of applicant's permanent incapacity for further service at the time of his death. Under the circumstances it is for Government to decide whether any application for Gratuity can be entertained. The records of the applicant's service show him to have been a most inefficient servant, to have been constantly disobedient to orders, and on one occasion when on duty keeping order at a festival to have combined with some other persons & extort money from a party of Gamblers and to divide it among themselves. On no ground therefore of Good service rendered has the applicant any claim to a Gratuity.

Should Government be pleased to decide that the application should be entertained, the applicant may be granted a Gratuity not exceeding Rupees 20 equal to 4 months pay.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter forwarded with this office report No $\frac{ADj}{227}$ dated the 9th September 1882.

O.M.

With reference to his report in this case the undersigned is directed to request that the Accountant General will be good enough to explain how any retiring allowance can be due, if, as appears, the applicant was merely transferred from one pensionable employment to another, & died in the latter before he had applied for the retiring allowance due to him, or signified his intention of retiring.

Order Nov 15th Nov/82 No 1102

S.O. It appears that the applicant never applied for pension tit is clear, in any case, that he died while under suspension for misconduct. In these circumstances no retiring allowance can be passed.

FOR ORDERS.

Applicant a peon was, as the Collr. puts it dismissed from Govt. service. But as he was got rid of on the ground of insanity to which the Doctor refused to testify & as he was appointed by the Collr. a Jungle Conservancy watcher he was not in fact dismissed.

A Jungle Conservancy watcher is a Govt. servant whose service qualifies for pension.

While serving as a Jungle Conservancy watcher he was suspended & as the Zillah Surgeon said he was unfit as a peon for duty the Collr. ordered his Dy: Collr. to prepare an appln for gratuity but the appt. never applied for gratuity the died while under suspension & was never reinstated. During his service he bore a very bad character.

Submitted the gratuity of Rs: 20 cannot be passed to his wife.
