P. Venkataramulu was appointed sayer peon in Mr. Orr's time. I don't recollect how long he was a sayer peon. Afterwards he was a police peon until the new Salugs were introduced.

The sayer employment ceased for six months once but he was again appointed. The chonki was not abolished but because of some differences between him and the fomarastal he was out of employ. The appointment he afterwards got was police peon.

Service claimed in the affidavit can be admitted. He says he was first employed when Mr. Dalog was acting for Mr. Whish as Collector which was in 1827 to 1828. His statement is further corroborated by an entry in the office of the 27th 1827 to 1st October 1828. CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

301 Certified that should Government be pleased to admit the period of service claimed in the affidavit of the applicant on the evidence afforded by the testimony of contemporary employees, qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for 39 years 8 months & 29 days. The Sub-Collector's letter No 203 dated the 12th May 82, accompanying states that the applicant was superannuated on 6th March 1868 when he had 43 years & 2 months service and that his post was given to his son. The Sub-Collector adds that the applicant's explanation regarding the delay of over 13 years in the submission of his claim for pension is unconvincing. Should Government be pleased to consider that even the great delay of nearly 14 1/2 years in the submission of a claim for pension does not afford sufficient ground to justify its rejection and further that if the applicant had claimed an awarded pension in 1868, it would have been allowed him, he may now be granted an awarded pension not exceeding Rs 300 per annum equal to 1/2 pay under the old rules. But as the grant of any pension a grant made long after the applicant had actually ceased to do duty it would rest with Government to decide, with reference to the rules 1 & 2 under section 163 of the Civil Pension Code, as to the date from which effect should be given to such amounts. In accordance with Rule 4 under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the Code.
