GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From J. STURROCK, Esq., Acting Collector of South Canara, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Mangalore, 26th April 1882, No. 970.

In forwarding, for the orders of Government, the accompanying application for pension on behalf of Chinnu alias Chandragiri Chinnu, late Duffadar, Uppinangadi Taluk, I have the honor to recommend the applicant's case for the special consideration of Government in view to an increased pension being sanctioned for him.

2. According to the rules the applicant is entitled only to a pension equal to half his pay or Rs. 4 per mensem. He, however, prays that a full-pay pension may be granted to him in consideration of the services which he rendered during the Coorg insurrection of 1837. According to him these services were that although seized and pinioned by the rebels at Bellary where he was on duty, and where the rebellion first broke out, he managed by bribing the insurgent guard with his silver girdle to effect his escape and convey information on the same day to Puttur and Vittal, which latter place he reached in an exhausted state and thereby enabled the Government treasure at the second-named station to be saved from falling into the hands of the insurgents, and the tidings of the insurrection to be communicated to the Principal Collector the same day. Later on he states that in the disguise of a "Bairagi" (an ascetic mendicant) he conveyed a letter from the officer in charge of the force which arrived from Malabar, to the officer descending into the district through the Bisli Pass and brought back the latter's reply.

3. The applicant has no testimonials or other papers in his possession to support his statements, and, although a search has been made among such of the records relating to the late insurrection as are still extant, no official document can be traced on the subject except the office copy of a report addressed by the Peishcar at Vittal to the Principal Collector on the day (30th March) the insurrection took place. From this report it appears that the applicant did convey information of the rising as stated by him, and was so much exhausted when he reached the Peishcar's Cutcherry as to be incapable of proceeding further.

4. This seems to be sufficient to show that the applicant rendered an important special service at a critical time, and taking this into consideration together with his long general service of forty-five years and his advanced age, I venture to recommend that Government may be pleased to obtain for him a full-pay pension of Rs. 8 a-month.

5. The grant of a special pension to those who had undergone hardships and rendered services in connection with disturbances in Canara is not without precedent, as will be seen from the orders of Government noted in the margin.

Certificate and Report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Govenment, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 21st June 1882, No. A.D.J.-80.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for forty-four years, nine months, and six days; and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 4 per mensem, equal to half-pay, is admissible under Sections 103 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, Fifth Edition. The calculations have been duly verified.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his remarks on the third page of the application. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

The Collector in paragraphs 2 and 3 of his letter, No. 970, of the 26th April 1882, recommends the grant to the applicant of a special pension in excess of that specified above, which is all that the Rules of the Civil Pension Code renders admissible. It rests with Government to decide whether the recommendation should be favorably considered or not.

Order—dated 18th July 1882, No. 633, Pension.

Under Sections 103 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Chinnu alias Chandragiri Chinnu, late Duffadar in Uppinangadi Taluk Cutcherry, South Canara District, an invalid pension of Rs. 4 (four) per mensem, payable at Uppinangadi from 15th March 1881, in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of forty-four years, nine months, and six days.

The Government note with dissatisfaction the long delay which has taken place in the submission of this application.

ORDER THEREON, 18th July/82 No. 633

For orders

The applicant is entitled to Rs 4 only. He prays however for a full pay pension in consideration of his services in the Coorg insurrection of 1837 & states that when seized & pinioned by the rebels at Vittal where he was stationed, he bribed the insurgent guard, escaped & conveyed information to Vittal which saved the Govt. treasure there & further enabled the Principal Collector to get tidings of the insurrection the same day. Further he states he acted as a messenger between different detachments of British troops. To support his story nothing exists but the O.C. of a report of the Vittal Peishkar to the Principal Collector dated the 30th March 1837 informing the latter of the insurrection but this letter sets forth that the applicant did arrive, as he states in an exhausted condition at Vittal that day with information of the rising. The Collector holds & it is submitted rightly that this is sufficient proof that the applicant rendered important service at a critical time — & he recommends grant of a full pay pension of Rs 8. The Rs 4 might be passed & a letter despatched to India asking for Rs 8.
