I have the honor to submit, for orders of Government, an application for the grant of a gratuity to Richard Elias Adams, late a Chief Constable, No. 718, of the Coimbatore District.

2. He has served in the Police Department for thirteen years, six months, and fifteen days, and has borne a "good" character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the Civil Surgeon, Coimbatore, on the 5th April 1882, no second officer being available to convene a meeting.

3. He is entitled to an invalid gratuity of Rs. (384) three hundred and eighty-four only, payable at Coimbatore, according to Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code.

Enclosure.

CERTIFICATE.

Certified that I have carefully examined R. E. Adams, son of G. J. Adams, Chief Constable, No. 718, in the District of Coimbatore. His age, by his own statement, forty-eight years, and by appearance about forty-eight years. I consider Chief Constable, No. 718, R. E. Adams to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the department to which he belongs in consequence of epileptiform convulsions and defective vision.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

From Major H. W. H. COX, Acting Assistant Inspector-General of Police, to the Accountant-General, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 22nd June 1882, No. 3177.

With reference to your letter, No. A.D.K.-33 of the 3rd instant (returned with its enclosures), I have the honor to inform you that the entries required therein have been made in the pension papers, and that pay from 23rd July 1875 to 31st March 1876 has been drawn at Rs. 32 per mensem as will be seen in Form D.

2. A confidential certificate as to the applicant's prospects of life is herewith forwarded.

CONFIDENTIAL CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that I have carefully examined Chief Constable R. E. Adams, No. 718, in the District of Coimbatore, and consider that he has not the normal prospects of life which a healthy man of his age should have on account of the epileptiform convulsions to which he is subject, which will certainly tend to shorten his life.

Civil Surgeon.

Certificate and report from the Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 30th June 1882, No. A.D.J.-97.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for thirteen years, six months, and fifteen days, and that (subject to the remarks below recorded) an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 384, equal to twelve months' pay, is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

The calculations have been duly verified.

In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

It will be seen from the accompanying certificate, headed "confidential," furnished by the Civil Surgeon of Coimbatore, dated 16th June 1882, that the applicant had not the normal prospects of life. With reference therefore to the Rule 3, Section 99, of the Civil Pension Code, the gratuity admissible will need to be commuted into a pension. The pension calculated in accordance with Table A, Appendix E of the Code, would be Rs. 3-0-6 per mensem, which is all that may be granted to the applicant under the rules.

G.O. 21st July 1882 No. 636

The Hon: Mr. Sullivan

The meaning of the undersigned in saying the case was hard was that a pension of Rs. 3.0.6 was not of much use to a European. It is submitted that under note 2 to ~~[illegible]~~ 3 sec 99 (note 2. 99) this Govt. cannot award the gratuity without the leave of India. It is thought that as the reference has actually been submitted no question arises under * note to para 2 as to whether it is required or not. The only grounds on which India could be addressed are

(a) Had gratuity been commutable into Rs. 20 only, applicant could have had it at Rs. 3.0.6.

(b) In misericordiam: there is little [illegible] it admitted [illegible] a European [illegible]
