To, The Acting District Judge of Salem.

Sir,

I have the honor to return herewith the extract of Service Register of Mr. I. Mesquita which accompanied your letter No. 85 dated 18th ultimo and to state that his services in this District as detailed in the list have been compared with the draft arzi books of the Tranquebar District Munsiff's Court the only record available, and and found correct with the exception of certain entries marked in red ink.

The arzi books show that he delivered charge of Salem Munsiff Court on the 28th September 1866 and took charge of the Tranquebar Munsiff Court on 15th October but applied for pay as District Munsiff of Tranquebar from the 29th September; and that he delivered charge of the Tranquebar Court on the 21st April 1868 and resumed it on return from leave on 20th May, 1868.

I regret the occurrence of so much delay in replying to your letter under reference.

TESTIMONIALS.

Mr. Thomas Misquita, at present Nazir of the Civil and Session Court at Madura, was originally entertained by me as a private Clerk in 1847, and remained with me till August 1852. During this time the subject on which I employed him gave him a great insight into business, and I was also at much pains to educate and train him for the Public service, to which, after having had full experience of his integrity and trustworthiness, I introduced him in August 1852 by appointing him as Nazir.

Since that period I can only say he has fully answered the expectations I had formed regarding him, and having had an opportunity of trying him in the capacity of Acting Sheristadar for six months from June to December 1854, I must add that he exceeded them. I consider him a most valuable and promising public servant. Pursuing with diligence his present course of conduct, he cannot fail of obtaining a Moonsiffship, and ultimately the higher office of Principal Sudder Ameen.

(Signed) C. R. BAYNES,
Civil and Session Judge.

Madura, March 26th, 1855.

Mr. Misquita holds such high testimonials from Mr. Baynes that I feel it would be a waste of words to say more than that. I have been perfectly satisfied with his conduct and character during the short time I have held office in the Court, and I trust he may soon have his amplest wishes fulfilled.

(Signed) T. CLARKE,
Acting Civil Judge.

Madura Civil Court, 27*th September* 1855.

To
Mr. Misquita,
Nazir of the Civil and Session Court, Madura.

I cannot leave Madura without granting you a few lines to say how highly satisfied I have been with you during the time I have presided in the Civil Court of Madura.

Your correct and steady conduct in the transaction of your public duty, merits my high approbation, and I trust ere long to hear that you have been promoted to a higher office where you may find a better opportunity to shew forth the attainments you possess.

Your rectitude of conduct and excellent private character points you out as one well qualified for the office of Moonsiff.

I shall always be glad to hear of your welfare and happiness.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) H. D. COOK.

Madura, 1*st March* 1856.

This is to certify that Mr. Misquita who informs me he is sending in an application for a Moonsiffship now vacant in the Zillah of Combaconum, has passed very creditably the required examination, and to state that I have during the time I have presided over the Court had every reason to be satisfied with his conduct, and had there not been applicants with greater claims from length of service I would on a recent occasion have raised him to a similar post to that he now seeks.

3. "I should not be doing justice to Mr. Misquita if I did not take this opportunity of saying that your nomination of him will, in my opinion, confer a benefit on those over whom he may be placed. His high character and integrity, his thorough knowledge of business, will amply compensate to them for any temporary inconvenience they might be put to, while he is learning to read their manuscripts or perfecting himself in their language. He is now presiding with credit over a 1st class Moonsiff's Court, and must, I think, eventually obtain the appointment of Principal Sudder Ameen, for which I have no hesitation in saying he is admirably qualified."

SIR,

I have the honor to forward for the consideration of the Chief Justice and the Honourable the Judges of the High Court, the Petition of Mr. T. Misquita, the District Moonsiff of Salem, praying to be promoted to the 1st Class Grade.

I first became acquainted with Mr. Misquita in 1856, when I was in the Subordinate Court at Madura, and there learnt that he bore a high character. He was shortly afterwards promoted to the post of Moonsiff in the Madura Zillah, and when a similar appointment became vacant here, he applied to me to obtain his transfer to this Zillah, as on account of his family he was anxious to get to a station in the vicinity of the Railway. Knowing him to be an experienced judicial officer of unblemished character, I had much pleasure in complying with his request, and the Judges were pleased to confirm my nomination of him to the post of District Moonsiff of Salem.

The duties of the Moonsiff at the Cusbah Station are onerous, and have been discharged entirely to my satisfaction by Mr. Misquita during his tenure of office. I have every reason to believe that he commands the fullest confidence of the people.

Under these circumstances I venture to hope that his application for promotion may have the favorable consideration of the Judges. His testimonials (copies of which are enclosed) are very creditable to him. Mr. C. R. Baynes, formerly Civil Judge of Madura, and subsequently one of the Sudder Judges, speaks of his character and attainments in very high terms.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. E. SULLIVAN,
Acting Civil Judge.

SALEM CIVIL COURT, 2*nd October* 1865.

Before giving over charge of the Civil Court at Salem last year, Mr. T. Misquita, the District Moonsiff of Salem, asked me to favour him with a testimonial. This I fully intended to do, but in the hurry of leaving it escaped my memory, until reminded of my promise by a letter received a day or two ago from Mr. Misquita.

When I first knew him, ten years ago, he was the Head English Clerk in the Civil Court at Madura, soon after which he obtained, entirely through his own merits, the office of Moonsiff at Dindigul. When the post of District Moonsiff at Salem became vacant, Mr. Misquita who, for family reasons, wished to be nearer Madras, applied for the appointment, and I was very glad to secure his services in what is a peculiarly responsible office. I had mainly his high character for integrity in view when I nominated him, but after he had joined a short time, I discovered that he added to the above very good legal acquirements, the results of early training under Mr. C. R. Baynes, and subsequent judicial experience.

Having made the selection of this Officer, it is pleasant to me to know that all are satisfied who have business in his Court, and that he is universally respected at Salem.

(Signed) H. E. SULLIVAN,
Late Ag. Civil Judge of Salem.

ON CIRCUIT, KURNOOL DISTRICT, 5*th August* 1866.

MR. MISQUITA,

I cannot quit the District without a few lines by way of testimonial to you. Short though your residence amongst us has been as District Moonsiff of Tranquebar, you have, nevertheless, in that time gained the confidence and esteem of the people, and shown yourself to be both able and conscientious in the discharge of your duties, and anxious to promote the ends of justice and the well-being of the people. Your patience in listening to and weighing the evidence adduced, while it affords satisfaction to the litigant parties, enables you to come to a right judgment, and to dispense substantial justice. In fact you are a blessing to the people.
