Pension No. 1009

From The acc<sup>t</sup> Gen<sup>l</sup> A.O. 1.
194

Dated 19th Aug: 1882.

FOR ORDERS.

applicant has served as Madras domestic seghun dhoby for 30 yrs odd & a pension of Rs 4 is sought for him.

The Sapat. certifies that the whole time of the applicant was at the disposal of Govt. (see: 56 C. Pension Code).

Should see why a dhoby whose whole time is given to Govt should not get a pension as much as a peckally

Subject to this restriction, under see: 89 of the code the service of "menial & inferior servants of all sorts" is qualifying inferior service.

I cannot agree - You might as well pension Mr. Panchan & Baker - What does the Rule say? "menial & inferior servants of all sorts" Is a dhoby a menial servant? Is it pretended that one dhoby can wash the clothes of 300 inmates of a Hospital? Of course not - he took the contract at a small amount & employed others in working it out.

Is a dhoby's service then pensionable? G.O. 19th May 1879 no 263 gave a gratuity to a peckah pullar. G.O. 3rd Dec 76. no 597 to a gardener because though so called he did the work of a peon or watch man. G.O. 24th Feb 77 no 102 to a gardener paid him a gratuity as another gardener of that sort had been pensioned by G.O. 26th August 75 no 489 which deprecated any such pension list.

G.O. 4th June 1877 no 300 gave a gratuity to a peckah man at the Govt. Hospital

80. 19th Sep<sup>r</sup>. 1873 no 784 gave pension to a Tailor at the Depot Hospital, Poonamallee.

Still there is no precedent for pensioning a shoemaker & Govt.
may be disposed to deprecate
adding this class to the Pension list.

The matter is one of importance
for if a precedent is established it will not be difficult for doctors to get certificates that their whole time is at the disposal of Govt. — They would willingly spend the whole day in washing the
kios things they have to wash
perhaps, from a public institution
to qualify with ease in every respect for a pension list.
