GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of South Canara, dated 20th July 1882.

Certificate and Report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 19th August 1882, No. A.D.J.-201.

Certified that, should Government, under the explanation furnished by the Collector in the column of remarks on the second page of the application, be pleased to condone the period of non-employment extending over a period of two months and seven days, viz., from 1st November 1877 to 7th January 1878, the applicant's subsequent combined inferior and superior qualifying service will amount to twenty-six years and nine days; and, subject to the remarks below recorded, a superannuation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 90, equal to six months' pay, will be admissible under the note under Rule 1, Sections 106 and 117 (a) and 118 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. The service rendered by the applicant in superior grades amounts to upwards of nine years, and but for the operation of the proviso under Section 111 of the Code he would have been entitled to a larger gratuity than that recommended in the preceding paragraph. Moreover, had the applicant on re-employment refunded the gratuity of Rs. 35 sanctioned to him for his earlier service in G.O., No. 285, dated the 24th October 1854, Public Department, he would have been entitled to an invalid pension of Rs. 4 a-month for his combined earlier and subsequent service instead of to a gratuity only. With regard to the amount of gratuity above recommended, as the amount in addition to the gratuity sanctioned for the earlier service does not exceed the present value of the pension that would have been admissible had the gratuity received for the earlier service been refunded, the grant of such a gratuity will be in accordance with Rule 10, Section 182, of the Civil Pension Code.

3. In consideration of the applicant's long service, the Collector, in his remarks opposite to No. 1 on the third page of the application, recommends the grant to him of a pension of Rs. 4, and in support of his recommendation quotes the case of Bolar Venkateshaya, disposed of by the Government of India in their Order, No. 3762, dated 22nd October 1881, embodied in G.O., No. 1176, dated the 8th November 1881, Pension Department. It rests with Government to decide whether the indulgence granted to him should be extended to the applicant or not.

4. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No. 5 on the third page.

5. In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 10th October 1882, No. 957, Pension.

Under the note under Rule 1, Sections 106 and 117 (a) and 118 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Lawrence Coelho, late Clerk, Naikinkatta Sea Custom Office, South Canara District, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (90) ninety, equal to ~~six~~ months' pay, payable at Mangalore, in consideration of his combined inferior and superior service of twenty-six years and nine days.

2. A break in the service of this individual from the 1st November 1877 to the 7th January 1878 is condoned.

Office of the Collector and Recorder

Being service in temporary establishment

Verified from the records of the Collector's Office

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. Good with the solitary exception noted below. The receipt of a gratuity by the applicant when he was out of employ in 1863, violates his claim for a pension and under existing rules he is not entitled to a gratuity equal to nine months' salary. In consideration however of his long service extending over about 38 years, his case is recommended for the favorable consideration of Govt. in view of a pension of Rs. 40 a month being sanctioned for him, a similar indulgence having been lately granted to another subject in this office. (See Chapter XX, XIII.)
2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. A. Was reduced and transferred to a lower paid post, viz from Rs. 7 to Rs. 6, in July 1849, by an order of the Additional Sub Collector, who, I think, in what it is now stated that the reduction and transfer is ordered in consequence of the complaint preferred by one Pachappa Shetty. The record of the case having been delayed, no further particulars are available. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by the applicant received a gratuity of Rs. 35 on the abolition of his post, the Sub Collector's Establishment in 1863, under G.O. No. 24th October 1854, and Rs. 285 P.R. Dept. 4th, communicated Revenue Board's Proceedings dated 16th November 1854.
3. Explanation under Section 1, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. None.
4. Any other remarks. The applicants Service Book and Last Pay Certificate are enclosed. The delay of about four months in the submission of this application is caused by the applicant not having kept his Service Book correctly filled up and consequently it is having to be verified by reference to numerous records and papers of a very old date.
5. Specific opinion of Head of Office whether the service claimed is established and should be admitted. The service claimed is established and should be admitted.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No 201 Certified that should Government under the explanation furnished by the Collector in the Column of remarks on the 2nd page of the application, be pleased to consider the period of non-employment extending over a period of 2 months and 7 days viz from 1st November 177 to 7th January 178, the applicants subsequent combined Superior and Superior qualifying service will amount to 26 years and 9 days; and that subject to the remarks below recorded, a superannuation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 900 equal to 6 months pay will be admissible under the Acts under Acts 1 Section 106 and 117 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

The service rendered by the applicant in superior grades amounts to upwards of 9 years and but for the operation of the proviso under Section 111 of the Code, he would have been entitled to a larger gratuity than that recommended in the preceding paragraph. However, the applicant in re-employment refunded the gratuity of Rs. 350 sanctioned to him for his service when he was in G.O. No. 285 dated the 21st October 1854. The Department he would have been entitled to an awarded Pension of Rs. 400 a month for his combined earlier and subsequent service instead of his gratuity only. With regard to the amount of gratuity above recommended, as the amount in addition to the gratuity sanctioned for the earlier service does not exceed the present value of the pension that would have been admissible had the gratuity received for the earlier service been refunded, the grant of such a gratuity will be in accordance with rule 10 Section 182 of the Civil Pension Code.

In consideration of the applicants' long service the Collector in his remarks opposes to No. 1 on the 3rd page of the application, recommends the grant to him of a pension of Rs. 400 a month, and in support of his recommendation quotes the case of B. C. Venkataiah, disposed of by the Government of India in their order No. 2762 dated 22nd October 1871 embodied in G.O. No. 1176 dated the 8th November 1871 Pension Department. It meets with Government to direct whether the indulgence granted to him should be extended to the applicant or not.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks of p. 100: - viz to be 5 on the 3rd page.

In accordance with Rule 14, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

Despatch this order & please explain why acc! Gmt says Int for the operation of acc: III a large gratuity would be due — also why he says
"invalid" below — in his report — (168? compensation?)
Work appears to be mistakes.
