PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the District Judge of South Tanjore, dated 13th September 1882, No. 622.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 23rd September 1882, No. A.D.J.-257.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for ten years and fifteen days. But before determining the amount of gratuity admissible to the applicant, the question whether the present application should be taken for a superannuation or for an invalid gratuity needs to be finally settled. The applicant's age on the date of retirement having been more than 55 years, the Head of the Office was competent to remove him from the service on the ground of old age without requiring him to appear before a medical officer for any kind of examination. Had he been so removed, a superannuation gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 200, equal to ten months' pay, would have been admissible, but such gratuity would require to be reduced, under the operation of the proviso under Section 111 of the Civil Pension Code, to Rs. 66-10-8 only. The present application is, however, supported by a medical certificate, and the medical officer attributes the incapacity for further service to "defective vision from incipient cateract and debility," although, by the note under Clause (a), Section 109 of the Code, he is expected to state in the case of an officer of above 55 years of age that the incapacity is due to old age and natural decay. Under these circumstances, it rests with Government to decide whether the present application should be regarded as one for superannuation or for an invalid gratuity. If it be decided that the applicant should be granted a superannuation gratuity only, it is pointed out that it would be advantageous to him to be allowed to count towards pension his combined inferior and superior service under Section 118, as, in that case, he would be entitled to a gratuity of Rs. 120, equal to six months' pay, under Sections 102 and 117 (a) of the Code, in lieu of Rs. 66-10-8 only, as stated above. If it be decided that an invalid gratuity should be granted, a gratuity of Rs. 200 will be admissible, vide also the case of Mr. Fonceca disposed of in G.O., No. 508 dated the 2nd June 1882.

2. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 19th October 1882, No. 996, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sreenivasa Iyen, late 2nd Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Patukóta, South Tanjore, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (200) two hundred, equal to ten months' pay, payable at Tanjore, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of ten years and fifteen days.

Certified that qualifying Service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 10 years and 18 days. But before determining the amount of Gratuity admissible to the applicant, the question whether the present application should be taken for a Superannuation or for an Invalid Gratuity needs to be finally settled. The applicant's age on the date of retirement having been more than 55 years, the Head of Office was competent to remove him from the Service on the ground of old age without requiring him to appear before a Medical Officer for any kind of examination. Had he been so removed a Superannuation Gratuity not exceeding Rs 200 — equal to 10 months pay would have been admissible, but such Gratuity would require to be reduced under the operation of the Proviso under Section 111 of the Civil Pension Code, to Rs 66-10-8 only. The present application is however supported by a Medical Certificate, and the Medical Officer attributes the incapacity for further Service to "Defective vision from incipient Cataract and debility" although by the Note under Clause (c) Section 109 of the Code, he is expected to state in the case of an Officer of above 55 years of age that the incapacity is due to old age and natural decay. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to decide whether the present application should be regarded as on the Pension ~~Establishment~~ as an Invalided ~~Gratuity~~. If it be decided that the applicant should be granted a Superannuation Gratuity only, it is pointed out that it would be advantageous to him to be allowed to count towards pension his combined Superior and Inferior Service under Section 118, as in that case he would be entitled to a Gratuity of Rs 120 — equal to 6 months pay under Sections 102 and 117 (a) of the Code in lieu of Rs 66-10-8 only as stated above. If it be decided that an Invalid Gratuity should be granted, a Gratuity of Rs 200 — will be admissible vide also the Case of the Princess disposed of in G. O. No 508 dated the 2nd June 1882.

In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.
