19TH OCTOBER 1882, No. 998, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Madras, dated Fort St. George, 27th September 1882, No. J.A.E.-269.

Pension Department.

With reference to G.O., No. 739, dated the 15th August 1882, Pension Department, sanctioning payment of gratuity of Rs. 12 to the parents of Kondi Narayanan, a lad employed on the Pelandorai Anicut, who lost his life by falling into the water whilst on duty, I have the honor to inquire to what budget head of grant the gratuity should be charged, i.e., whether it should be charged under "Superannuation, Retired and Compassionate Allowance," Civil Department, or against the grant, if any, sanctioned on account of the Pelandorai Anicut Works, Public Works Department. If it is to be charged against the former head of account, arrangement for the payment of the gratuity will have to be made through this office, and if to the latter, I would request you to be so good as to arrange for the payment, the fact of your having done so being intimated to this office at an early date.

No. 340-P.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded in original (to be returned) to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, for favor of early orders as to whether the extraordinary gratuity of Rs. 12, sanctioned in G.O., Pension Department, No. 739, dated 15th August 1882, is to be paid and adjusted by the Civil or by the Public Works Department, with reference to Financial Department Resolution, No. 1518, dated 17th March 1876, copy furnished with this office No. 992-X, dated 4th March 1881.

RESOLUTION—by the Government of India, Financial Department.

Read endorsement of the Public Works Department No. 374-E.G., dated 6th March 1876, on a letter from the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 2224-E, dated 18th September 1875, inquiring whether gratuities to relatives of workmen killed in the execution of public duty should be charged to the works on which the men were employed or to the Civil Department.

RESOLUTION.—A pension or gratuity awarded under the rules of the Civil Pension Code to a public servant injured, or to the relatives of a public servant killed in the execution of his duty, should, under all circumstances, be recorded in the accounts under the Civil Head "Superannuation Allowances." But compensation awarded, under special rules applicable to State Railways, for the death or bodily injury of a person not a public servant caused in the working of a State Railway, should be charged as part of the working expenses of the Railway concerned.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the Public Works Department and the Comptroller-General.

ORDER—dated 19th October 1882, No. 998, Pension.

The gratuity should be charged to "Superannuation, Retired and Compassionate Allowance," Civil Department.
