Deposition given on oath on the 13th March 1883 before M. R. Venkatarama Ramanaiyah 2nd Class Magistrate of Erode Taluq by Natchi Mootan, Sweeper in the above Taluq Cutcherry.

Question — In verifying your Service the Pay Abstracts for the months of July 1858, December 1860, January and February 1861 are not forthcoming — Were you in employ or not during the above period? If you were state in detail what post you held and on what pay?

Answer — I held the post of a Sweeper in the above months — I am still a Sweeper — I do not recollect only the pay — On refreshing my memory, I draw pay viz Rs 1-12-0 in the month of July 1858, and in the months of December 68, January and February 1869 at the rate of Rs 5 per month

Question - Were you dismissed Suspended or were your Services dispensed with or were you absent on leave during the above period for which there are no pay abstracts?

Answer - I was in the Service during the above period - I was not absent on leave - I was neither Suspended nor dismissed nor my Services dispensed with -

Question - Have you witnesses who Served with you and who are aware of the above particulars mentioned by you?

Answer - If Lutchman and Rao the Head Gomastah of the Taluq was examined, the Circumstance of my having been in the Service during the above period will be known.

Question - It appears from the Pay Abstracts that in the months from March to June 1867 and in the 12 months of 1868 and in January and February 1869 your Substitutes did work and got pay after affixing their Signatures What were you during the above period?

Answer - 20 years ago - I was ill - I retained Substitutes during the period - I retained my men of work done by them - I do not recollect the month and year -
