To,

His Excellency the Governor of Fort St. George
Madras

The Humble Petition of Jiglar Ráma, late Daffdár, now residing at Kárkul. Dated 16th October 1853. Kárkul.

Most respectfully Sheweth,

That Your Excellency's Petitioner had been first appointed a peon in the fortress of Jamálábád on a monthly salary of Rs. 4-8-, and that he there served the Government faithfully and zealously for Six years.

That he, at the time of the local rebellion of the Coorgs was employed to furnish the Regiment with guards

That he once led some of the English Officers to a place where 24 of the rebell Coorgs were stationed, for which Service the Collector Macleton being pleased with him presented him a Sum of Rs. 25, and gave him a post of Daffedar, and that he there Satisfactorly Served the Government for 25. years

That he, at the time of the reduction in this Department on account of the establishment of Police Department, the Petitioner lost his employment but succeeded in getting a post of a first Class Police Constable where he served for 6 years

That having thus served the Government for 35. years, he was transferred to the Bangády Police Station where he

where he fell sick.

That his lingering illness having not permitted him to rejoin his duties, his services were dispensed with, but on application having been made to Government, a gratuity of Rs. 42 was given him for his faithful Service.

That the Petitioner then applied to the Collector for pension for his other services, but without avail.

That the next application sent with the hopes of getting pension or gratuity, having been met with refusal, the Petitioner now totally blind and deaf is in a miserable condition.

That, after this, the Petitioner, with the intention of representing his case to the Crown, I mean, to Your Excellency, applied to the Collector to favour him with a copy of his report to the Revenue Board and also of his certificate granted the Petitioner by the Zillah Superintendent, but that the Petitioner had the misfortune of being refused that favour.

And that as the Petitioner's present circumstances are very miserable and as he has now become blind and deaf from old age, he has ventured to earnestly beseech Your Excellency, to take pity on him, who was once a faithful servant of the Government, now a loyal subject, and to relieve him from starvation by granting him a pension or a gratuity in consideration of his 31 years' Service in the Revenue Department.

For which act of kindness and generosity Petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray
