2. The records show that the fields noted in the margin

Canonies 25-9-4 recessed at

Rs 83-15-1 Muzfah and Turfah, in the village of Chigamurairi halli in the Chittoor Taluk.

were attached on the 17th

September 1872 by the late

Revenue Inspector Virasamy Iyer for arrears of Revenue

Rs 77-1-4 for faslis from 1277 to 1281 A.C. by Resauvala and there an account of Quit Rent on their Kattubadychams and the Remark Column of the list of attachment, which is signed by M. Anisgar Chingannah, Curram Venkatasami and Revenue Inspector Virasamy Iyer, two wells are said to exist on the lands. The sale of the said lands was fixed for the 12th November 1873 and the Revenue Inspector

Thandava Pillai was deputed to conduct the sale. Thandava

Pillai, without inspecting the lands or even going to the village conducted the sale in the village of Orala at a distance of a mile and half from Chigamurairi halli.

The lands were sold by the Revenue Inspector to Gandhari Chinna Basappa Orala for Rs 81-4-4.

3. Retri Senganna a joint holder of the lands in question, presented to the Collector on the 19th November last, about a week after the sale, a complaint to the effect that the lands in question were worth a great deal more than the price for which they were sold; that some wells and trees existed on them; that one Euravadu made Rs 82 for them; but that the Revenue Inspector sold the lands to Chinnabappa for a smaller price. An enquiry was made and the Tahsildar personally inspected the lands. It appears that there are 4 wells, valued at Rs 120 and 2 ^{Emirind} trees valued at 10-0 on the lands in question. The price of the lands themselves was estimated at Rs 416-2-0. In all, the whole property is worth Rs 546-2-0, or at the least, not less than Rs 500 Rupees, clear. This estimate, it appears to by no means exaggerated; of the very fields attached and sold in the Revenue Department as above, viz. fields Nos. 1 and 2 ^{canals} 4-10-8 assessed at Rs 6-9-9 and wet fields Nos. 1, 6 and 13 ^{canals} 1-11-0 assessed at Rs 19-7-3 in all, ^{canals} 6-5-8, assessed at Rs 26-0-0 were purchased by Gandhari Narayana of Arala for Rs 119-12-0 in 1862 when the same were sold in satisfaction of a court decree. He produced for the Tahsildar's inspection the court's sale certificate. The above extent is about one-fourth of that sold by the Revenue Inspector, and so the Tahsildar's estimate of the value of the lands in question is very fair. It should be remembered also that the price of lands has by no means diminished since 1862.

4. The Petitioner has proved by witnesses that he offered Rs 82 for the lands; but nevertheless they were sold for Rs 81 to Chinnabappa.

5. The Revenue Inspector admits that he did not see the lands before selling them and that there is material difference between the particulars as given in the original list of attachment and actually found on inspection of the localities. The Inspector was present when the Tahsildar inspected the lands and admits the accuracy of that officer's estimate of their price. He however denies that ^{Emirind} made Rs 82 for the lands at the sale. He states that he did not conduct the sale in the village because there are not many houses in it and it is situated in a hilly tract. Arala is only 1 1/2 miles from the village and he expected many bidders there. He took for granted that attachment list was correct and therefore did not inspect the lands before they were sold. He adds that the complaint was got up against him by some of the dismissed curams of the village.
(not

6. The curam who signed the attachment list has been already removed from public employ, and the Revenue Inspector Virasamy Dyer is no more in Government service; his services having been dispensed with on account of old age. The Manjar, who denies having put his mark on the list apparently for fear he might be punished, is an illiterate man. The attachment list does not contain the fact that there are 2 other wells and 2 trees on the lands; for having signed this incorrect document, the Manjar will now be suspended for 3 months.

7. It is the conduct of the Revenue Inspector Thendava Pillai that especially requires to be seriously noticed. His omission to inspect the lands before they were sold, and his dereliction in conducting the sale in a different village from that in which the lands are situated in direct contravention of the terms of the notice of sale published under the Act shows the grossest neglect of his duty as a Revenue officer. Again his refusal to admit Erravadi's bid for Rs 82 creates the strongest suspicion in his conduct. The lands were sold for a price (Rs 81-4) not even equal to their assessment (Rs 83-15-1). The Inspector is unable to explain his conduct in the case.

8. This is not the first case in which the misconduct of this Revenue Inspector has come to notice. On a separate proceeding this day passed, with regard to a case of illegal sale of lands for arrears of Revenue in the village of Patapohim. His dereliction of duty and suspicious conduct have been remarked upon. His general inefficiency has been impressed by the Tahildar in the monthly diaries and frequent warnings have been given him with no effect from October 1873 to January 1874, in each month the Tahildar found fault with this Inspector for keeping large arrears of Revenue in his range and for inattention and delay in the disposal of cases referred to him. On his diary of December last, Mr. Cox, the ~~Acting~~ Collector has expressed the following opinion of this Inspector. "I have strong doubts as to the competency of this Inspector for the very important duties he is entrusted with." Besides, in last year, the Revenue Inspector was punished with a fine of 3 Rupees for neglect of duty in a case

Recd. Tahildar

Letter to ~~act~~ of Boundary dispute and he is warned for certain irregularity committed by him in the sale of same lands
Collector's Office
27.2.56
No 804.

9. Thus it will be seen that Vasudeva Pillai has proved himself utterly unfit and untrustworthy for the important post of Revenue Inspector he now holds and in the two cases now disposed of, in addition to the grossest neglect of duty, the strongest suspicion of motive for fraud has been evinced by him. The Collector therefore directs that Revenue Inspector Vasudeva Pillai be now removed from his post of Revenue Inspector and suspended for one year. He will at the expiration of that time join the Venkataswara Sub Magistrate's office as gamastah.

10. The purchaser Gandhari Chennabappa has paid up the purchase money 81 Rupees. He is unwilling to receive back the money and restore lands. His consent is immaterial as the sale of the lands in question has not yet been approved of by the Collector nor has the sale certificate been issued. The Collector therefore directs that the sale in question be and the same is hereby cancelled. The purchase money will be refunded to the said Chennabappa. The lands will be resold according to the Law by a competent Revenue officer after fresh notice of the same has been duly promulgated, if in the meantime the defaulters have not paid up the arrears due thereon. Resolved that a copy of these proceedings be forwarded to the Tahildar for his information.

The period of suspension already undergone by the 3^d class Revenue Inspector Kasudena Pillai who was suspended for having failed to present himself at Ponnai Aricut during the gamabundis of Lakid 1287 seems sufficient for the reasons mentioned in your No 172 and he is therefore ordered to enter on his duty and to obtain his pay from the date on which he re-enters. He should strictly be warned in writing that if any neglect of duty or misconduct hereafter should happen to be noticed he would be removed from the
