Order thereon No. 2886 Tr. of 13th October 1883.

Having in view the report of the Medical Officer on Irrigation Superintendent Krishna Iyengar's physical fitness, the Government are of opinion that it would be an unnecessarily harsh measure to discontinue his services when he is within a measurable distance of his pension. It is distinctly laid down that the 55 years rule is to be worked with discretion, and that the premature retirement of efficient officers is not to be enforced.

2. Krishna Iyengar will accordingly be reinstated in his appointment.
