READ—again G.O., dated 5th September 1883, No. 796, Pension.

From J. F. FINLAY, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, Pension department, dated Simla, 18th October 1883, No. 3819.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 796-A, dated 5th September 1883, forwarding a memorial from T. Ayalu Naidu, late gollah in the Paper Currency department at Madras, praying for permission to refund two gratuities received by him with a view to render him eligible for a pension.

2. Before passing any decision on this case, the Governor-General in Council would be glad to be favored with information as to whether the allegation of the petitioner that in 1869 "he attempted to refund the gratuity" is correct, and whether he can prove that he took steps to move the Government of Madras to permit him to refund the gratuities received by him.

No. 62.

Referred to the Accountant-General for report on the point raised.

(Signed) J. D. REES,
Acting Under Secy. to Govt.

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Commissioner of Paper Currency, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 16th November 1883, No. 1481.

With reference to your Under Secretary's endorsement, No. 62, dated the 8th November 1883, referring to me for report letter from the Government of India, Financial department, No. 3819, dated the 18th October 1883, inquiring whether the allegation of the petitioner T. Ayalu Naidu therein referred to that in 1869 "he attempted to refund the gratuity" is correct, and also whether he can prove that he took steps to move the Government of Madras to permit him to refund the gratuities received by him, I have the honor to state that there are no records in the office to show that in 1869 the petitioner attempted to refund the gratuity. From inquiries however made of the office clerks who were employed at the time and from the accompanying written statements of the petitioner and of the muchi of the office, it seems to me probable that the petitioner did endeavour to petition Government through his superiors to permit him to refund his gratuity, but was not allowed to do so owing to the adverse decision then passed by the Madras Government in the similar case of the late cashier Tirumala Mudali.

2. I must remark, however, that the concession applied for on account of Tirumala Mudali was refused by this Government on the ground that the circumstances brought forward by the Commissioner of Paper Currency, who forwarded Tirumala Mudali's application, were not sufficient to justify a departure from the fixed rules. Among the circumstances brought forward, ignorance of the rules was not one. The Commissioner based his application merely on the fact that the necessity for repaying the debts incurred by Tirumala Mudali while he was out of employ left him no means of refunding the gratuity for some years after he obtained re-employment.
