To

The Accountant General,
Fort St. George

SIR,

With reference to your letter dated 25th September 1883 No. ADK 109.

I have the honor to state (3) Ramangula Nayak was the Head Master of the late Sriperambudur School on Rs 20 and transferred to the Walajapet School as an assistant Master on reduced pay as he was ignorant of English. In February 1881 he was transferred from the assistant Mastership of the Arcot School, the pay of which was Rs 15 to 17½, to the Headmastership of the Walajapet Girls School which carried carried only Rs 15 on public grounds, he being better suited to be master in a girls' school than a young man, and also, he did not know English which he was required to teach in a Middle School according to the remodelling scheme of the Taluk Schools.

(8) The applicants' last Pay Certificate is herein enclosed.

(35) In my letter to Government I reported that the applicants' total period of qualifying service falls short of 25 years by 6 days, "the period not reckoned as service" having been deducted through oversight from the period reckoned as service "instead of from the length of service including breaks."

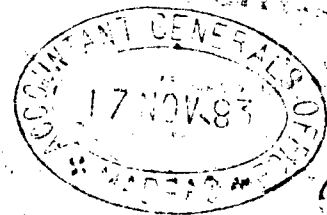

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,
