No 349

Madras Police Office
28 September 1883

From

The Superintendent of Police

To

The Secret Superintend of Police Madras.

Sir,

Samarthayi commonly called Thayammal widow of the late Constable No 1188 Coopamoothoo Pillai of Palay Station, sent a petition to me applying for a Pension on the ground that her husband met his death by a fatal wound received while engaged in the execution of his duty in suppressing a riot at Kallamputhur in the Palay Taluk.

2 The following are the circumstances under which the said Constable was wounded and his life lost.

The late Managannayak of Kallamputhur left behind him 3 widows, one Jelli Kattai Venkatarany was the Manager of the affairs of the two elder and Sambasubayya was the Manager of the younger widow.

There were frequent disputes between the two parties in regard to the estate of Monagumundai Sairk.

On the evening of 1st September 80 Jellikatter Venkatasamy Sairk informed Mr. Sapp, the Inspector of Police Pulney, that there was a large mob collected at Kaliaimpattur which intended to assault him and his followers on their way home, the Inspector started with Head Constable N. M. Coorpan, other Poles and 3 other Constables. The mob attacked the Police, who fired in the confusion and Head Constable N. M. Coorpan was accidentally shot by the Police which resulted in his death.

Captain Hodgson the then Acting Supt of Police proceeded to Pulney, instituted enquiries and ascertained that the Head Constable lost his life in the manner above detailed.

The Head Constable left no wife or children. His family property is a house worth about Rs. 300 in which she resides, she obtains her living by husking paddy, she has no other means of support.

4. Under Section 156 Civil Pension Code I have the honor to forward herewith for submission and the favorable consideration of government an application in Form D, Appendix A for a Pension to the family of the late Head Constable who lost his life as already stated in the execution of his duty.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

W. Dyer Esq. Lt. Col.
