| Uppinakudru Nagappa. | 3,909            | RS. 3                      | The pensioner, who died on the 12th October 1881, has left two heirs, viz., Nagamma Sheregarti, his second wife, and Venkataramana, his brother. As each of these claimed payment of the pension (Rs. 4-2-6) due to the deceased in arrears from 1st September to 12th October 1881, they were allowed a term of five months to produce a certificate of heirship from a competent Civil Court, as required in G.O., 2nd December 1872, No. 812, Pension Department, but both of them have failed to do so. From a report received from the Tahsildar of Coondapoor, it appears that the deceased's wife, Nagamma, left him some three years previous to his death, and was not in attendance on him at the time of his illness; while his brother, Venkataramana, being undivided, lived with the deceased, and eventually performed the funeral ceremonies, &c., after his death. The Tahsildar therefore recommends that the amount due to the deceased may be paid to his brother Venkataramana. It is therefore requested that the Accountant-General will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for disbursing the amount (Rs. 4-2-6) to the aforesaid Venkataramana on production of an affidavit. |
