GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Director of Revenue Settlement and Agriculture, dated 15th January 1883, No. 89-22.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding, for the sanction of Government, an application for pension on behalf of Mr. T. Venkata Chariyar, Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 3rd February 1883, No. A.D.J.-425.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for thirty-one years, six months, and twenty-two days; and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, a superannuation pension, not exceeding Rs. 279-10-7 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 106, 109 (c), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. In calculating the average emoluments, the applicant's pay from 18th October 1877 to 31st March 1878, a portion of the period during which he held the appointment of Special Assistant to the Collector of Tinnevelly for Settlement purposes, has been reckoned at Rs. 500 instead of at Rs. 350 per mensem, the pay from which he was promoted, and to which he subsequently reverted on the abolition of the above appointment. Rule I, Section 123, prescribes that when an officer in permanent employment is deputed on temporary duty, he cannot count his additional deputation allowance. But looking to the nature of the appointment and the object with which it was created, it is doubtful whether the Government intended that it should be regarded as purely a special or temporary appointment in the sense of the term used in Section 71 of the Code. This office has therefore considered it proper to reckon the applicant's emoluments, from 18th October 1877 to 31st March 1878, at Rs. 500, instead of at Rs. 350 only a-month.

3. In accordance with Rule IV, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 15th February 1883, No. 130, Pension.

Under Sections 106, 109 (c), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tirumangalam Venkata Chariyar, late Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, a superannuation pension of Rs. (279-10-7) two hundred and seventy-nine, Annas ten, and Pies seven per mensem payable at Trichinopoly from 18th October 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of thirty-one years, six months, and twenty-two days.

2. The Government consider that the course pursued by the Accountant-General in calculating the average emoluments of this officer, was, in the circumstances, correct.

To
The Ag. Secretary
Madras University

Sir,

I have the honor to report that arrangements have been made by the Examiners and Inspectors, subject to the approval of the Director and Government, for carrying the scheme of the former during his leave of absence. This arrangement is that Mr. Lesk shall act for Mr. Kinch, Mr. Pepper for Mr. McLeish and that I, Mr. Parker-Gallaway whom I have recommended for a certificate of the second grade, shall enter upon the duties ordinarily assigned Mr. Pepper.

Should you wish for any further information on the subject I shall be happy to furnish it.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 15th Instant, I am directed by the President and Governors to inform you that as Mr. Bowie has promised to refrain from discharging the duties of the Office of Librarian for the space of two months, they are willing to grant him leave of absence for that period.

I am directed to add that the Board entirely approve of the arrangement proposed by you for discharging the duties of Mr. Bowie's during his absence.

To
The Actg. Secretary to the Madras University.

Sir,

I have to announce the death of Mr. S. Laurie, Writing Master and Librarian in the High School. This unfortunate event renders it necessary to provide the institution with a person to perform the duties of the two offices held by the deceased; and I beg to recommend that a new arrangement be made, by abolishing the Writing Mastership from the office of Librarian. It will be seen by reference to the proceedings of the Board meeting held on the 8th January 1842, that the Writing Master had originally 50 Rs. a month, to which his salary was increased.

increased to 70 Rs. on the being produced that a Library should be formed and the writing master entrusted with the subscriptions.
The Library has hitherto been
of a very poor character
and it has been sufficiently taken advantage of by any Scholars; this is much to be regretted, and I think measures should be adopted to enlarge the Library and render its sphere of usefulness. If a distinction
were given up to the books,
a book Proficient made Librarian, and on former occasions, as well as on present, invited to avail themselves of the Library,
much good would probably be effected, both in the way of affording
young men readier ac-

Reading

cess to it, and even adding to their stock of knowledge, and also in forming a common rallying point for the habits that have formed in the School. Naturally would the change be advantageous
in the way described above, but it would further enable the writing master to devote his whole attention to his own peculiar department,
which is not in a perfectly satisfactory state at the present moment. With these views I suggest that an individual be obtained on a salary of 50 Rs. a month to fill the post.
Proficients (supposing it should become the service of one) be appointed Librarian on a stipend of Rs. 20 a month.

Reading Writing
Arithmetic, Geography, I think it arrivable to defer making any specific recommendation regarding the increase of the Library, but will at a future period do myself the pleasure of addressing you upon the subject.

SIR,

In returning the Statement showing the Services of Mr. T. Venkatachariyar in the Educational Department forwarded with your letter No. 3559/366 dated 14th Ultimo for verification I have the honor to state that from the enclosed Certificates marked I and II it will be observed that the appointment of the above-mentioned Pandit was to 31st January 1850 was made in consequence of the absence of Mr Bowes on two months leave. Hence it was only an acting appointment.

2. As regards Mr Venkata Chariar's services as Copy Master and Librarian from 1st February to 25th September 1850, I regret I am unable to verify them as there are no records or entries in this office or in that of the Presidency College regarding the same, Excepting Mr Powell's letter of the 20th May 1850 (Copy Enclosed) recommending the separation of the offices of "Writing Master" and "Librarian". As to the cause of termination of this appointment it may be traced from his oath of Employment in the Government Service.

3. Mr Venkata Chariar held the appointment of permanent Deputy Inspector of Schools, Nagpur, from 1st January 1856 to 19th June 1860, when he resigned to take up a place in the office of the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlements.

Director of

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No 425 Adj. Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 31 years 6 months and 22 days; and that subject to the remarks below recorded, a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs 279-10-7 per mensem equal to ½ average emoluments is admissible under Section 10b. 109 (c) and 111 of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

2. In calculating the average emoluments, the applicants' pay from 18th October/77 to 31st March/78, a portion of the period during which he held the appointment of Special Assistant to the Collector of Tinnevelly for Settlement purposes has been reckoned @ Rs 500 instead of @ Rs 350 per mensem, the pay from which he was promoted and to which he subsequently reverted on the abolition of the above appointment. Rule 1 Section 123 prescribes that when an officer in permanent employment is deputed on temporary duty, he cannot count his additional deputation allowance. But looking to the nature of the appointment and the object with which it was created it is doubtful whether the Government intended that it should be regarded as purely a special & temporary appointment in the sense of the term used in Section 71 of the Code. This office has therefore considered it proper to reckon the applicants' emoluments from 18th October/77 to 31st March/78, @ Rupees 500 — instead of at Rupees 350 — only a month.

3. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 68 of the Code.
