From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 23rd December 1882, No. J.A.E.-416.

Pension Department.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, No. 1224, dated the 13th of December 1882, I have the honor to state that as the Government of India in their letter, No. 3037, dated the 7th idem, have decided that Mr. R. Evans, as Assistant Appraiser in the office of the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, is entitled to the special privileges, as regards pension, conceded to officers in the higher grades of the Customs Department, he is, under Government of India Resolution, No. 2079, of 31st July 1879 (Clauses 3 and 5, Section 2, paragraph 5), entitled to a compensation pension not exceeding Rs. 32-2-8 per mensem, equal to $\frac{5}{45}$ ths of his average emoluments in addition to a bonus of Rs. 1,500, equal to five months' pay.

2. As Mr. Evans has, however, already drawn a gratuity of Rs. 1,500 (sanctioned to him in G.O., No. 963, dated the 13th October last), which is not admissible in addition to pension, the gratuity should be treated as a bonus, so that the only allowance to which he now has any claim is the pension above mentioned, which is payable from 1st July 1882, the date from which he ceased to be borne on the establishment.

3. Through an oversight, Mr. Evans' claim to a pension, as well as a bonus, was not intimated to Government when communicating the reply from the Accountant-General, Bengal, to the effect that officers there holding position similar to that of Mr. Evans were entitled to the special privileges conceded by the Resolution of 31st July 1879.

ORDER—dated 9th January 1883, No. 17, Pension.

Under the terms of the Government of India Resolution, No. 2079, dated 31st July 1879, and letter from the Government of India, dated 23rd June 1882, No. 1950, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the grant to Mr. Rowland Evans, late Assistant Appraiser in the office of the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, of a compensation pension of Rs. (32-2-8) thirty-two, Annas two, and Pies eight per mensem, equal to $\frac{5}{45}$ ths of his average pay for the last five years, with effect from 1st July 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of five years, seven months, and three days.

2. Mr. Evans is also entitled to a bonus or special gratuity of Rs. 1,500, but as he has already received the gratuity of Rs. 1,500, sanctioned under the ordinary rules in G.O., No. 963, dated 13th October 1882, which is not admissible in addition to the pension now sanctioned, the gratuity already paid to him will be treated as a bonus or special gratuity.

3. Mr. Evans, who it is believed is now at Sydney, will be requested to state where he desires his pension to be paid.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Secretary to Government,
Pension Department

SIR,

With reference to the Proceedings of Government No. 1224, dated the 13th of December 1882, I have the honor to state that as the Government of India in their letter No. 3037 dated the 7th idem have decided that Mr. D. Evans, an Assistant Appraiser in the office of the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, is entitled to the special privileges, as regards pension, conceded to officers in the higher grades of the Customs Department, he is, under Government of India Resolution No. 2077 of 31st July 1879 (clauses 3 and 5, Section II, para 5) entitled to a compensation pension not exceeding Rs. 32 - 7 - 8 per mensem equal to $\frac{5}{15}$ ths of his average emoluments in addition to a Bonus of Rs. 1500 equal to 5 months pay.

As Mr. Evans has, however, already drawn a Gratuity of Rs. 1500 (sanctioned to him in Government order No. 963 dated the the 13th October last) which is not admissible in addition to pension, the gratuity should be treated as a Bonus. So that the only allowance to which he now has any claim is the pension above mentioned, which is payable from 1st July 1882, the date from which he ceased to be borne on the Establishment.

Through an oversight, Mr. Evans' claim to a pension as well as a Bonus was not intimated to Government when communicating the reply from the Accountant General, Bengal, to the effect that officers there holding positions similar to that of Mr. Evans were entitled to the special privileges conceded by the Resolution of 31st July 1877.
