It is submitted it is doubtful if order passed giving pensions to men incapable for irregular habits ^{or insubordination} are defensible.

G.O. 22nd June 1879 no 40 only allows indulgence where incapacity is the result of syphilitic affection.

Again in p: 3 of the order an effort is made to distinguish the case of convalescents in that the majority of them have contributed towards their relieving allowance.

under the old Superannuation Fund Rules. "This was the ground as of 31st 77 replying to an objection from dia. This however is not the case with the present applicant whose service began in 1873, the Superannuation Fund having been abolished in 1871.

Para 2 is therefore submitted for approval.

No protest is admissible to the fact that the applicant whose incapacity is certified by the medical board to be due to irregular
