The

Sri,

I beg respectfully to bring to your notice that of a Government pensioner from the Establishment of the Secretary General Madras.

2. The year ago I was attacked with a painful disease in my eyes which deprived me of the sight of one eye, the other being saved after a operation which I underwent in the Eye Infirmary. Two years since feeling my remaining sight getting dim I went to the Eye Infirmary at London after a careful examination.

 right and I wish me to avoid all exposure to the light. Since then my sight has become gradually worse so that at present I cannot move about with its assistance. I to give me a month for my pension and will have to do this generally about the middle of the year. The exposure causes distress in my eyes besides putting me to all the inconvenience of all the time I spend. The Accountant General the sanction of Government to his doing so.

 It will not prevent the distress of which I complain if I have to appear before a magistrate or other public functionary required by the Civil Pension

General may be authorised to allow me to appear in person once in six months and to pay me my pension at other times upon a life-certificate signed by some respectable person

Apologizing for the OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

The petitioner asks to be exempted from personal appearance at the acc. Genl. office to draw his pension.

Under sec 164 (3) exemption may be granted but it makes the disbursing officer responsible for any payment wrongly made & throws on him the duty of ascertaining each year not only that the pensioner is alive, but that he cannot appear.

P.O. 13th March 82 no 234.
P.O. 15th Dec 82 no 12541.

Exemption it is thought should not be lightly granted. A person has been exempted & a sufferer from paralysis.

The applicant pleads that it ^{is} hurts his eyes. As he draws a pension of Rs. 100 perhaps he could go in a palanquin with attendants or other precautions. His age & infirmity is shown & sufficient ground is shown for exemption. & order is made.

Exemption granted & order is made.

Weller petitioners suffers from such bodily illness or infirmity that he should be exempted from drawing his pension in person,

The Hon. Mr. Sullivan.
