No 130 District Munsiff's Court

From The District Munsiff of Kodagur
To The District Judge
of Gadagur District
Rajahmundry

Sir With reference to the Proceedings of your honor's Court dated 18th December last returning the application for revision and the Service Register of my late Head Clerk Mr. Venkataravayana with instructions for further correction I have the honor to state that I have obtained from him the necessary explanation as to the discrepancies pointed out in your Proceedings, and it is herewith submitted.

The following corrections are made with reference to each of the observations made in the Proceedings and keep explanation against each of them is entered below. Variation.

(1) His Service Register shows that the salary of the 4th Gurnasta was increased from Rs 9-0-0 to Rs 11-0-0 on the 30th August 1862. He could not say whether the omission of his name in the pay abstract for August was a clerical error or whether it was then custom of that Court to omit names of officers below

Rs 10-0-0. I think the date given is wrong inasmuch as all new arrangements would generally begin from the 1st day of a month. I do not know how to be able to correct this date in the Service Register when I have no record to verify it beyond his Service Register.

(2) It appears that the additional Munsiff's Court sanctioned to this District having been opened at the beginning of Rajahmundry and hence removed to Georgepetta. I presume the bill for the month October 1862 has shown that he belonged to the additional Munsiff Court Rajahmundry. Hence the discrepancy. The necessary connection has, therefore, been now made in need of it.

(3) Late 4th Gurnasta had no vouchers with him to show the period during which he practised as Munsiff at Georgepetta, or is he quite sure as to the period during which he was on leave to practise and the date on which he joined his office at Cocanada. The whole period of 5-6 months entered as his service as Munsiff, and the date of his appointment of 2nd Gurnasta is corrected as 25th June 1863. It is probable that he could not join his office till 12th July 1863, notwithstanding his appointment to the post on the 25 June 1863.

(4) The error pointed out here and now corrected.

(5) The permanent Head Clerk obtained leave at first only till 31st January 1868 as entered in the Pension roll.
His leave which was subsequently extended to 13th February except the notice of the officer who prepared the office Manual and Service Register. Hence this discrepancy.

(6) The dates of his appointment to 2nd clerk's post and of acting Head Gunastaship are corrected in the Service Register as directed.

Late Head Clerk explained that as Service books were not regularly kept up formerly such mistakes have occurred.

His Service Register and the application for Pension

Pension are resubmitted

District Judge

I received that order while I was at Merriden. Before it joined my office at Canaan after giving over the papers to the parties, the delay mentioned in the proceedings might have occurred. I request that this discrepancy may be by order of the court.

I was seated for a while in the Merriden Court till 16th February 1862.
Leaving Canaan on that date I arrived at and took charge in the Redaput Court on the 17th. It might have been wrongly entered in my Service Register as 18th, one day's discrepancy. The date of drawing my pay was also entered wrongly as 17th.

I was acting Head Guernsey in the Redaput Merriden Court from 4th November 1867 to February 1868. It was entered in my Service Register that it was till 31st January 1868 only. The permanent Head Clerk applies for leave only till 31st January 1868 at first. This leave was subsequently extended & the extension was

of leave during which I was acting, was not through my right entered in my Service Register
I request the same may be entered in my book.
It is observed in the Proceedings that in the April stood of 1882, it was mentioned that I was acting Second Gumasta in the Peddapuram Munsiff's Court on the 16th February 1882, whereas, in the Pay abstract for March, it was given that I was Second Gumasta from 1st to 15th March, and acting Head Gumasta from 16th March to 5th April.
I am directed to explain this discrepancy.
As the Service Registers were not regularly kept up at that time, acting appointments of short duration were not entered in them. The Pay abstracts are the records of the Court for reference.

I therefore request the Court to make the necessary corrections
