Respected Sir,

With reference to the Proceedings of the District Court, No: 45 dated 29th Ultimo — (received by me yesterday) I beg to state that I received Chinnu Pillay's Service Book from the District Munsif of Tripatore on the 7th September 1882, and it was (after verification with the available records) returned to him on the 1st of the following December, and that the delay of 2 months and 23 days was due to the following causes.

2. Chinnu Pillay's Service as a Gumastah of this Court commenced so far back as 3rd September 1862 and continued up to 31st March 1879; and in verifying the entries made in the Service book, the office Copies of the Pay bills and the Leave registers relating to the interval of 16½ years had to be gone through. And for several days the Head Clerk was searching for the missing office copies of some of the old Pay bills &c., besides being engaged in other heavy works such as the preparation of the monthly and Quarterly Returns that were to be submitted in October 1882. I beg also to bring to notice that in October, the Head Clerk attended the late Additional Session's Court of Salem for 8 clear days having been summoned to attend as a witness in a case tried by that Court.

With reference to the Proceedings of the District Court, dated 21st January 1883, No 9, I have the honor to submit the following explanation.

2. Chinna Pillay was examined by the Taluk Surgeon on 4th August 1882. He returned from Salem two or three days afterwards and went to Dharampury immediately afterwards on urgent business promising to be at Tripatore whenever he is wanted to give any information necessary for the preparelation of gratuity application. All information was gathered from him by 5th September 1882, and on the following day the service book was sent for the verification of his services to the District Munsif of Salem in whose Court he served — until April 1879. The book was returned to me nearly three months afterwards, i.e. on 3rd December 1882, and the following day it was sent to the Accountant-General under Section 127 of the Indian Code but he returned it on 15th December to be sent through the District Court. This was done on the very day but I got back the book on 8th January 1883 with the Proceedings of 2nd December 1882 C. No. 109 wherein I was ordered by the District Court to send a proper application for pension. The application was

SIR,

With reference to the application for gratuity on behalf of Chinnu Pillai late 9th Clerk of the District Munsiff's Court, Tripatore, received with your letter No. 35 dated the 25th Ultimo, I have the honour to inquire as follows:

(a) How the proposed amount of gratuity viz. Rs. 36-10-8, was arrived at. If the applicant had been holding the appointment of 9th Clerk, substantively, as shewn in the application and if his qualifying service had commenced from 3rd September 1862 he would have been entitled to Rs. 60 — equal to 5 months' pay calculated on the pay of his last appointment.

(b) Why no application for gratuity on behalf of the applicant was submitted at the time he lost his appointment in consequence of abolition of Establishment in March 1879. Considering the long period of nearly 18 months during which he was out of employ, it is probable the applicant should have prepared his claim for a gratuity.

Rs. 36-10-8

(c) What is his country, is he called by the name of any caste, and from what class of records was his service verified.

Sir,

With reference to the first of the three questions put by the Accountant General in his letter of the 12th February 1883 (hereunto returned) referred to me for explanation in the Proceedings of the 15th idem No 15 I have the honor to state that on Carefully reading the proviso annexed to section 111 of the Civil Pension Code I found that Chinnu Pillay is entitled to a gratuity of Rs 60 equivalent to five months pay of the office which he held immediately before resignation.

When preparing the application, I was under the impression that this sum should be multiplied by a fraction of $\frac{18\frac{5}{12}}{30}$ on the ground that his first entertainment in the service of Government was at an older age than 25 years. As I now see that this restriction applies only to individuals who have been admitted to the public Service subsequent to 20th January 1871, I request that the figures 60 may be substituted for Rs 36-10-8 under the head "proposed gratuity" in the application.

2. I am unable to answer the second question, because Chinnu Pillay was thrown out of employment from Salem Munsiff's Court in 1879 and his service in this Court began only from September 1880. It appears however from a letter written to me by the Accountant General on 13th December 1882 bearing No $\frac{IAE}{388}$ that an application for gratuity was made and withdrawn in 1880 (vide letter dated 10th August 1880 No 234 from the District Judge of Salem to the Accountant General); and the reason for this Proceeding is ascertainable only from the records of the District Court.

3. As regards the third point, I beg to state that Chinnia Pillay belongs to Shevapet Salem, that he is called by no house name and that his service was verified from the records of Salem Munsif's Court

(vide accompaning Jadaeb) and
